1st Sunday of Lent
Feb 14, 2016

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." — Lk 4:1-3

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, fill me with the Holy Spirit. May I hunger and thirst only for You.

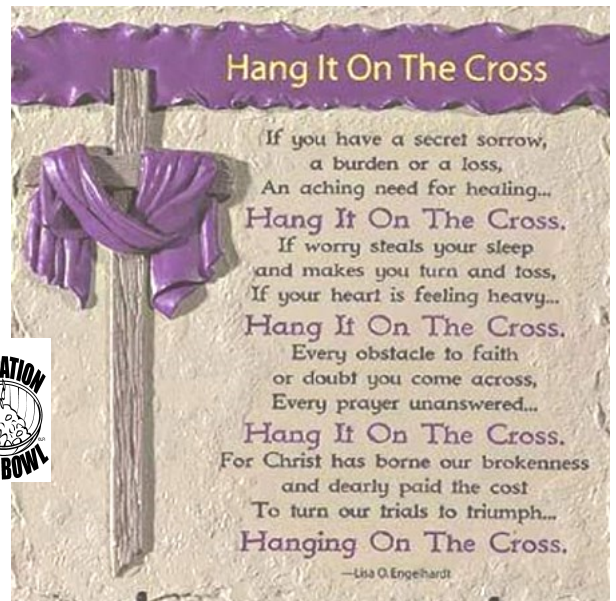

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
How can we lis- ten more careful- ly to Jesus' words?	Let God's Word change us this Lent.	Let God's Word change us this Lent.	God is eager to forgive us when we have sinned.	Let us seek God's pres- ence in all we do.	Let us do away with all sinful- ness this Lent.	Jesus challeng- es us to love without limits.

God bless you as we come to the first Sunday of Lent. To assist you in prayer, scripture reflection and to grow closer to the Lord, free issues of "The Word Among Us" {given out last week} and copies of the book "Rediscover Jesus" are being made available at the beginning of Lent. Also, "Dynamic Catholic" has a daily email with a short video reflection available to all during Lent. You can sign up online for that at DynamicCatholic.com/Lent

Lenten Regulations for Catholics

The Christian faithful are to do penance through prayer, fasting, abstinence and by works of piety and charity. All Fridays through the year, especially during Lent, are penitential days.

...Abstinence: All who have reached their 14th birthday are to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Good Friday is a day of fasting, as well as abstaining from meat.

Rice Bowl contribution boxes are at all entries. Remember those who are in need of help. For we are truly blessed!

Remember Lent is a time for Prayer/Almsgiving/Fasting.

CFSA 2016 We have begun the Catholic Family Sharing Appeal for 2016. CFSA challenges us each year to think beyond our walls and our individual needs. At some time in your life, you or someone you love will be served in one way or another from the ministries supported by CFSA. Your gift helps each of the 30 diocesan ministries reach out to thousands, including training our future priests, a respect for life, proclaiming Christ's message through the media, and providing counsel to the hurt and reaching our youth.

Our parish goals are: at Sacred Heart $41,900.00; we are at 12% of goal with 6% participation. At Ss Peter & Paul goal is $18,000.00. we are 6% of goal.

I am confident we will exceed this goal, but we need the help of everyone. Remember any amount raised above our goal stays in the parishes. Ask yourselves what have I done for the church. We have so many blessings coming our way. Help support the diocesan ministries. We sometimes take them for granted. None of them come without a cost. Pray about your pledge and gift this year, and be generous.

Be a Hero. Give Blood. Blood is the "gift of life." It comes only from people—there is no other source. Life Serve Blood Drive... Thursday, February 25th @ Avera St. Benedict from 12-5:30pm. Give the gift of life. Donate Blood. Call

A Family Perspective by Bud Jesus "was led by the Spirit in the wilderness." What is the wilderness in your life to which the Holy Spirit is leading you this Lent? Perhaps there are uncharted areas in your marriage or family relationships. Spend this Lent in your "wilderness" with God work. Where is the Spirit leading you this Lent?

World Marriage Day takes place on February 14, 2016. World Marriage Day is an observance sponsored by American organization Worldwide Marriage Encounter, associated with the Catholic Marriage Encounter movement and observed on second Sunday of February each year. Its purpose is declared to be: "World Marriage Day honors husband and wife as the foundation of the family, the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily married life."

A group of women were asked, "How many of you love your husband?" All the women raised their hands. Then they were asked, "When was the last time you told your husband that you loved him?" Some women answered "today", a few yesterday", and some couldn't remember. The women were then told to take out their cell phones and text their husband: "I love you, sweetheart." Then the women were then told to "exchange phones with another person, and to read aloud the text message they received, in response.

Here are some of the replies:

1. Who the heck is this?
2. Yeh, and I love you too. What's up with you?
3. What now? Did you crash the car again?
4. I don't understand what you mean?
5. What the heck did you do now?
6. Eh, mother of my children, are you sick or what?
7. You're kidding, right ?
8. Don't beat about the bush, just tell me how much you need?
9. Am I dreaming?
10. If you don't tell me who this message is actually for, someone will die.
11. Your mother is coming to stay with us, isn't she?

A little girl was learning about the American Presidents in her Sunday school class. When her mother picked her up after the class, she got in the car and immediately asked her mother if she knew that God had given the Ten Commandments to Abraham Lincoln.
 - via Jeff Totten Lake Charles, LA

A Dublin University student was hitchhiking on the side of an Irish country road on a very dark, stormy night. He could hardly see a few feet ahead of him. Suddenly, he saw a car slowly coming towards him and stopped.

He got into the car and closed the door, only to realize there was no driver behind the wheel and the motor wasn't on. The car mysteriously started moving slowly again, and the frightened student started to pray, begging for his life. He saw the lights of a pub around a curve, jumped out of the car, ran to the pub, and started telling everybody about the terrible experience he had just had. Suddenly, the door opened, and two other people walked in, both soaked and out of breath. Looking around, they saw the student sobbing at the bar. "Look, Patrick," one said to the other, "there's that silly fellow who got in the car while we were pushing it."
