2nd Sunday Lent
Feb 21, 2016

While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. — Lk 9:29-31

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, may I make any changes necessary to be reconcile to You before this day is over.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
How can we listen more carefully to Jesus' words?	Jesus invites us to imitate God's compassion.	Let us try to treat others as if they were Jesus.	Jesus invites us to share his suffering for others.	Let us notice and help the poor who are all around us.	How can we make Jesus the foundation of our life?	God is always ready to love us extravagantly.

Greetings in Christ! Many are aware that 2017 will be the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima to the three Portuguese shepherd children: Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta. Far fewer persons are aware that starting in the spring of 1916, on several occasions, God sent an angel to help prepare the children for what would happen in the next year by teaching them about doing penance, prayer including Eucharistic adoration. They were taught to make sacrifices and offer them up for the conversion of poor sinners. We should do the same during Lent and throughout the year. Here are the three prayers the angel of Fatima taught Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta:

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You. I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope, and do not love You. (repeat three times in honor of the Most Holy Trinity)

O Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly. I offer You the most Precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the Tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges, and indifferences by which He is offended. By the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of poor sinners. (repeat three times)

O Most Holy Trinity, I adore You! My God, my God, I love You in the Most Blessed Sacrament! (repeat three times)

If you know world history, then you will know what dire straights the world was in during this time: the horrors of World War I and the stage being set for the downfall of the Czar in Russia and the coming of the Communist Revolution headed by Lenin. If you do not know much about the messages of Our Lady of Fatima, I highly encourage you to research and learn. It is all very much pertinent for our own time.

Congratulations to those children who made their First Confessions on Saturday, Feb. 13th.

Thank you to all who helped work and helped support the two recent fundraisers at Saints Peter and Paul parish and Sacred Heart parish to benefit the Kinneberg family and the Youth from both parishes who will be going on a work mission trip this summer.

If you would be able to be on the finance council for Saints Peter and Paul parish, please let me (Fr. Rader) know.

No CCD Wednesday, Feb. 24th for either parish

CFSA 2016 We have begun the Catholic Family Sharing Appeal for 2016. CFSA challenges us each year to think beyond our walls and our individual needs. At some time in your life, you or someone you love will be served in one way or another from the ministries supported by CFSA. Your gift helps each of the 30 diocesan ministries reach out to thousands, including training our future priests, a respect for life, proclaiming Christ's message through the media, and providing counsel to the hurt and reaching our youth.

Our parish goals are: at Sacred Heart $41,900.00; we are at 12% of goal with 6% participation. At Ss Peter & Paul goal is $18,000.00. we are 6% of goal.

I am confident we will exceed this goal, but we need the help of everyone. Remember any amount raised above our goal stays in the parishes. Pray about your pledge and gift this year, and be generous.

A Prayer for Lent

O sacred head surrounded
By crown of piercing thorn!
O bleeding head, so wounded,
Reviled and put to scorn!
Death's pallid hue comes o'er thee,

The glow of life decays,
Yet angel hosts adore thee
And tremble as they gaze.
I see thy strength and vigor,
All fading in the strife,
And death, with cruel vigor,
Bereaving thee of life'
O agony and dying!

O love to sinners free!
Jesus, all grace supplying,
O turn thy face on me!
In this thy bitter Passion,
Good Shepherd, think of me,
With thy most sweet compassion,
Unworthy though I be;
Beneath thy cross abiding,
Forever would I rest,
In thy dear love confiding,
And with thy presence blest.
—St. Bernard of Clairvaux

A Family Perspective by Bud Jesus "went up the mountain to pray" and he was "changed." Prayer has the power to change us. This Lent set aside a few minutes each day to pray for members of your family. Pray before each meal and if you are married, spend five minutes in prayer together.

Church Support:

No report for this week. Bulletin printed before money was counted. Look for reports on February 28th. JoAnn

It is February 22, the third Friday of Lent, and the faithful parishioner stumbles through pouring rain past hamburger huts and steak houses into the monastery at Mount Angel and requests shelter. He's just in time for dinner and was treated to the best fish and chips he's ever had.

After dinner, he goes into the kitchen to thank the chefs. He's met by two brothers, "Hello, I'm Brother Michael, and this is Brother Francis."

"I'm very pleased to meet you. I just wanted to thank you for a wonderful dinner. The fish and chips were the best I've ever tasted. Out of curiosity, who cooked what?"

Brother Michael replies, "Well, I'm the fish friar." The man turns to the other brother and says, "Then you must be . . ." "Yes, I'm afraid I'm the chip monk."

Just as the graveside service had ended, there was a tremendous burst of thunder accompanied by a distant lightning bolt and more rumbling thunder. The little old widower looked at the pastor and calmly said, "Well, she's there."

Stop, Thief! An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening of church services when she was startled by an intruder. She caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled, "Stop! Acts 2:38!"

(Repent and be baptized, in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven.)

The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you." "Scripture?" replied the burglar. "She said she had an ax and two 38's!"

What's the best part about Valentines Day?

The day after when all the chocolate goes on sale.

Jim and Danielle's first date. They sat in the darkened cinema waiting for the film to start. The screen finally lit up with a flashy advertisement for the cinema's concession stand. Jim and Danielle realized that there was no sound. The film began but the silence continued.

Suddenly, out of the darkness, an irritated voice in the crowd loudly shouted, 'Okay, who's got the remote control?'

Did you hear about the nearsighted porcupine? He fell in love with a pincushion!

"These are vegetables, mother. You wouldn't want me to eat something I've given up for Lent, would you?"

Jim asked his friend, Tony, whether he had bought his wife anything for her Birthday .

'Yes,' came the answer from Tony who was a bit of a chauvinist, 'I've bought her a belt and a bag.'

'That was very kind of you,' Jim added, 'I hope she appreciated the thought.'

Tony smiled as he replied, 'So do I, and hopefully the vacuum cleaner will work better now.'
