3rd Sunday of Easter
April 10, 2016

“Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.” — Jn 21:18-19

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, remove from me the baggage which slows me down in evangelization. Amen

Father Rader has been in the hospital since Monday. He has pneumonia and RSV. After he get's out of the hospital he will be recuperating in Sioux Falls with friends for a few days. Please keep Father in your prayers.

Thank you to Fr. Thury for filling in at daily Mass and this weekend.

WOW, what a great turn out and response for the Steve Walz benefit. Thank you who all helped or donated in any way. JoAnn

Our high school students have had a busy week. I'm filling in pictures from Confirmation & Living Stations for Fr. Rader's column. Anyone who like any of pictures contact parish office.

We have a part-time job open for Sacred Heart parish--it will entail a fair amount of social interaction to help with parish social events and activities, DRE/ CYO/Safe Environment administration, producing the monthly and weekly ministry schedule on the monthly calendar and weekly bulletins, running off bulletins and occasionally producing the weekly bulletin, plus parish office duties as needed and under the directives of the Pastor. JoAnn Hoffman will certainly be able to help with training prior to her retirement and even after with consultations as needed. There are a couple of Wednesday evening hours to cover each week as overall monitor during CCD time, but if need be we can hire another person just for those hours (as an assistant to the DRE position.) Typical office hours would be Wednesday afternoons from 1pm to 4:30pm, plus Thursdays and Fridays from 9am to noon and 1pm to 4:30pm. There can be some flexibility to that schedule when you might need to arrive later or depart earlier. With the Wednesday evening CCD hours, it would entail around 19-20 hrs. per week, without them about 17. You must have competency with computers, copiers, and other typical office equipment. Again, JoAnn can help teach about the particulars of the parish office machines we have. After praying on it, if you have an interest in this position, please contact me (Fr. Rader) at Sacred Heart parish office.

MATT MAHER "THE SINNERS AND SAINTS" Tour coming to Mount Marty College!

Mount Marty College is preparing to welcome Matt Maher and "The Saints and Sinners Tour" to campus for a special night of music and worship in Cimpr Arena on Wednesday, May 4, at 7:00 p.m. This tour is on the heels of Matt Maher's three GRAMMY® nominations this year, including "Best Contemporary Christian Music Album" for his project Saints And Sinners (2015). Inspired by leaders of faith who left profound marks on Christianity, the album highlights songs influenced by historical greats such as Martin Luther King Jr. and Mother Teresa. The album also produced the No. 1 radio single, GRAMMY®-nominated and Dove Award winning song, "Because He Lives (Amen)." Tickets are on sale now at www.itickets.com. Tickets are $18 or $14 for groups of 10 +, plus appropriate fees. For more information contact events@mtmc.edu or visit www.mtmc.edu/concert

From Holy Humor by Cal & Rosa Samra

Rev. Robert A. Pollauf, SJ, of Sts. Peter and Paul Church, Detroit, passes on this account of how Daniel saved his life in the lions' den" King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon was astonished that the hungry lions had not eaten Daniel. He summoned Daniel and promised him that if he would reveal his secret, the king would give him his freedom. "It was easy, your excellency," Daniel said. "I went around and whispered in each lion's ear—"After dinner, there will be speeches."

"The empty tomb proves the value of Christianity; the empty church denies it." - Rev. Denny Brake Pomeroy, IA

A newly appointed bishop, received by Pope John XXIII in private audience, complained that the burden of his new office prevented him from sleeping. "Oh," said the pope, "the very same thing happened to me in the first few weeks of my pontificate. But then one day my guardian angel appeared to me in a daydream and whispered, 'Giovanni, don't take yourself so seriously. Try laughing at yourself'. And ever since then I've been able to sleep." -Edward R. Walsh Westbury, NY

A bus driver went to church for the first time and sat in the first row. After his sermon, the pastor went to the man and asked him why he sat in the front row alone.

"Well," the driver said, "I just sat up here to see what you did to make everyone move to the back." -Msgr. Arthur Tonne Jokes Priests Can Tell.

A message on billboard outside St. Dominic Savio Catholic Church, Affton, MO: COME EARLY & GET A BACK SEAT.

On Easter Sunday, worshippers entering the sanctuary at McMaster United Methodist Church, Turtle Creek, PA, were greeted by two giant, red capital letters -M-T- flanking the reredos behind the altar. M-T stands, of course, for "empty," and the good news of the vacant tomb.

Rev. Jeffrey D. Sterling planned to quiz the children about the M-T during the children's message early in the service. With 28 brightly dressed little ones gathered around him on the chancel steps, the pastor asked: "What's different about the church today, kids?"

After a pause, Sterling's own daughter, throwing her hands into the air, replied: "It's full, dad!"
End of sermon.

When a new building had to be constructed on Vatican grounds, the architect submitted the plans to Pope John XXIII, who shortly afterward returned them with these three Latin words written in the margin: Non Sumus Angeli, meaning "We are not angels." the architect and his staff couldn't figure out what the Pope meant, until finally someone noticed that the plans did not include bathrooms. -Msgr. Arthur Tonne Jokes Preist Can Tell
