“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, ‘I am going away and I will come back to you. If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I.’ — Jn 14:27-28

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, may every day of the rest of my life be a sacrifice pleasing to You. Amen

Greetings in our Risen Lord!

Thank you to all who helped out/attended the 25th anniversary celebration last weekend for Deacon Barry and myself. Thank you for all the prayers, cards, gifts, greetings and laughing at my jokes! (= Special thanks to JoAnn Hoffman for all the behind the scenes prep work she did beforehand. I'll be looking for helpers to prepare for her retirement party in late June. If you'd like to be a helper, please let me know. Never too early to start enlisting help.

Speaking of help: I'm exhorting everyone in Sacred Heart parish to please pray that we have someone or some persons step up to fill the position that takes over some of the work that JoAnn does--some office hours and duties, along with DRE/CYO/Safe Environment/Social events/fundraisers for Sacred Heart parish etc. (See more description below). Paid hours/part time--will vary but probably in the 15 to 20 hrs. per week/time put in can sometimes be flexible. Please contact me at the parish office as soon as possible. Remember, please pray!

I'm looking forward to the employee/volunteer complementary appreciation suppers for both parishes (May 4th at Sacred Heart and May 11th at Ss. Peter & Paul)--6pm social 6:30pm meal. (To be held in the hall for each parish) Sign up sheets are in the entryways of the two churches--May 2nd deadline so we can get in our orders for the food from the caterer.

Health update: Friday, April 22nd, I checked into the hospital at Parkston. I had a CTscan done. It showed that in my lower left quadrant I have "epiploic appendagitis" (basically chronic inflammation of appendages connected to the lower colon). It was quite painful, but not nearly as bad now. There isn't much that can be done other than wait for the inflammation to hopefully go away on it's own (typically 3 to 14 days) and have the assistance of some pain medication. I keep the chancellor and bishop updated on my health issues too. Thanks for your prayers!

Thank you, again, to all our DRE's & CCD teachers, including substitutes, for the school year. Our last CCD class was this past Wednesday.

DEACON HENRY KNAPP, DEACON BARRY, FR. RADER, DEACON HAROLD PARDEW

A Family Perspective by Bud Today Jesus gives this advice: "Do not let your hearts be troubled." Worry and anxiety can consume our lives preventing us from seeing the love which surrounds us and binds us to one another. Don't miss the forest for the trees. We are living today what we worried about yesterday.

Catholic Home Missions Collections was April 23rd & 24th. Inserted in last week's bulletin is your mission envelope, bring it back, or use one of your own clearly marked "Home Missions." This collection helps support missions here in the United States.

Without this appeal poorer dioceses in the US cannot sustain vital youth programs. This collection helps support missions here in the United States. About 45% of dioceses in the US are classified home mission, not able to support basic pastoral needs. There are many places in America where the Catholic Church struggles. Out of the mouths of babes

A mother was watching her four-year-old child playing outside in a small plastic pool half filled with water. He was happily walking back and forth across the pool, making big splashes. Suddenly, he stopped, stepped out of the pool, and began to scoop water out of the pool with a pail.

"Why are you pouring the water out, Johnny?" the mother asked. "Cause my teacher said Jesus walked on water. And this water won't work," the boy replied. Rev. Woody McKay, Stone Mountain, GE

En route with the family to church, a five-year-old boy was told that this would be a special day because a neighbor's baby girl, Brenda was to be blessed.

The little boy was looking forward to the occasion, but fell asleep during the service. When he awoke, he told his mother, "I'm sorry I fell asleep and missed Brenda getting blasted!" Jean W. Spencer, Camarillo Ca

I took my three-year-old granddaughter, Denise, to my church's Thanksgiving celebration. Cans and boxes of food and pumpkins were stacked around the altar; and I explained to Denise that the food was for poor people who didn't have enough to eat.

When the choir began to process toward the altar, Denise cried out: "Look Grandma! Here come the poor people now!" -Shirley Thomsen, Vancouver, WA

After a Vacation Bible School teacher read the story of the prodigal son, she asked, "What does it mean to 'waste your substance on riotous living?'" Seven-year-old Tim spoke up: "It means to spend all your money on bubble gum."

A Sunday school teacher asked her class, "Does anyone here know what we mean by sins

"The Pastor keeps referring to this morning's text' ... but which one?"

of omission?"

A small girl replied: "Aren't those the sins we should have committed, but didn't?" -Catherine Hall

A Sunday school teacher challenged her children to take some time on Sunday afternoon to write a letter to God. They were to bring back their letter the following Sunday. One little boy wrote: "Dear God, we had a good time at church today. Wish You could have been there." - Rev. Richard L. Hadfield, Plainfield, PE

From the Funny Side of Golf.

You can always tell a golfer in church. He is the one who uses an interlocking grip when he puts his hands together to pray.

They say it's no sin to play golf on Sunday, but the way some golfers play it's a crime.

Franklin P. Adams defined middle-age as when you are too young to take up golf and too old to rush up to the tennis net.
