25th Sunday Ordinary Time Sept. 20, 2015

Taking a child he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." — M k 9:36-37

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, make my life a "sign of the cross." Amen

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins,
save us from the fires of hell,
and lead all souls to heaven,
especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Dear friends in Christ, Summer is coming to an end in a few days and Bazaars, fundraisers and brunches have started. What a great get away for those that need an outing on a Sunday. It is great to renew acquaintances and make new friends and it is great to meet the priests in the surrounding parishes and thank them for being a priest in our diocese. As well, as saying thank-you to our Pastor, Father Rader for being a priest. By the way, welcome back to Sacred Heart, Father Rader. Hope you had a relaxing time.

Keep all our school children in your prayers, hope they had a fun filled and safe homecoming week. God's blessings upon you all. Oh my! The harvest is getting near, the corn and beans are turning color and the last crop of hay is being put up. Drivers be on the look out for the Combines, trucks, tractors and wagons. I enjoy touring the country side watching the harvest being gathered in. I kinda poke around with my purple pickup and I catch myself not paying attention to others on the roadways also. Be safe everyone!

In closing, be the best you can be, Jesus calls us everyday to be his followers and his disciples. We don't have to be first, we just need to do our best. God is love and is the greatest.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us.

Deacon Barry.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Disagreements are common in families. But what would you say if Jesus posed the same question "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly and petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control on another. Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control.

25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Out of the mouths of Babes

Four year old Tucker attended Vacation Bible School at our church. The theme was "Discipleship and Saving Mother Earth." his mother, asked him what he had learned. He immediately told her all about "Jesus and the 12 recycles." Rev. Larry Wilkinson, Gastonia, NC

Our five year old grandson was attending our church for the first time. On the way home, he asked, "If that is God's house, how come there are cracks in the ceiling?" John Hirsh, Ft.

Lauderdale, FL

After listening restlessly to a long and tedious sermon, a six year old boy asked his father what the preacher did the rest of the week. "Oh, he's a very busy man," the father replied. He takes care of church business, visits the sick, ministers to the poor... and then he has to have time to rest up. Talking in public isn't an easy job you know.

The boy thought about that then said: "Well listening ain't easy either." Msgr. Arthur Tonne

The pupils of Cheam School, one of the most respected boys' schools in England, were being briefed for the expected visit the next day of Lord Geoffrey Fischer, the Archbishop of Canterbury. They were told, "If the archbishop speaks to you, you must address him as either 'My Lord, or 'Your Grace.'"

When the distinguished cleric arrived, the boys were marshaled in a row, shoes shined and cheeks scrubbed. The archbishop walked along the line smiling and stopped to speak to one boy. "How old are you, sonny?" he asked.

The boy spoke up: "My God, I'm ten!" Sherwood Eliot Wirt

A little boy went to dine with his parents at the home of an elderly gentleman. After watching the old man bow his head and speak in a soft voice, the boy asked his mother: "What did Mr. Bryan say to his plate?" Dick Van Dyke

The old pastor made it a practice to visit the parish school one day a week. He walked in the fourth grade class, where the children were studying the states, and he asked them how many states they could name. They came up with about 40 names. He jokingly told them that in his day students knew the names of all the states

One lad raised his hand and said, "Yes, but in those days there were only 13." Msgr. Charles Dollen.

A mother overheard her little girl praying:

"Now I lay me down to rest.

I pray I pass tomorrow's test.

If I should die before I wake,

That's one less test I'll have to take." George Goldtrap

The Family Circus

"Be quiet, Jeffy, or you'll be sent to God's office."
