Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward." — Mk 9:39a, 40-41

Pray for Peace in the Womb and the World!

Father, leave me speechless before Your glory. Amen

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins,
 save us from the fires of hell,
 and lead all souls to heaven,
 especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Greetings in Christ! What an eventful week with the visitation of Pope Francis. Thank you for your prayers for his protection and for positive spiritual fruit to come of his visitation to our country.

Scripture study with potluck following the 5pm Saturday Mass on Sept. 26th.
(See the insert for the October Scripture study schedule.)

Thank you to our high school youth doing such a great job on giving a new coat of paint to the striping in the parking lot for Sacred Heart parish. So glad the weather allowed for it.

Thank you to Rob VanLaecken and Bob Malloy for their great work on giving the new shed two coats of paint--looks sharp!

Thank you to Greg & Joe Reiser for their great work in putting in a new section of sidewalk near the north main entrance to Sacred Heart church to replace a couple of pavers that were uneven, plus putting in a couple of old pavers for steps to the side door of the shed and completing concrete work to make a slope to the main entry of the shed by the parish parking lot.

We continue to sell the pews from both Ethan and Tripp. If you or someone you know has an interest in purchasing one or more, please contact me at the parish office in Parkston (928-3676). $50 each for the ones in Ethan (combination of some white oak and laminate), 10 1/2 feet wide. $125 each for the ones in Tripp (solid red oak), 15 1/2 feet wide. Buyers need to provide their own means of transporting pews purchased.

Soon, we'll need some fellows from Tripp to transport remaining unsold pews in former Holy Rosary church to the new shed here at Sacred Heart parish. If you can help with this project, please let me (Fr. Rader) know. Thanks

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

The words in today's gospel, "Whoever gives a cup of water in the name of Christ will not lose their reward" hits us at home. As parents we gain our "reward" when we bring water to frightened child in the middle of the night, or Kool Aid too parched five-year olds, or hold ice chips to the fevered lips of a spouse. It is that simple and that sacred. In our homes we give until it hurts "in the name of Christ."

CCD on Wednesday evening October 7th, at Sacred Heart the 10th grade students will be placing the wooden crosses {which represents a LIFE taken by abortion in South Dakota} in the church lawn at Sacred Heart.

At 8pm all students will meet in SH church for prayer and devotional readings then form living chain to say the rosary in church for RESPECT LIFE MONTH.

All are invited to pray with the students.

A pastor always used the phrase, "It might be worse," when some calamity would come his way. One day a friend said to him, "I've something to tell you, and you won't be able to use your favorite phrase. I dreamt last night that I died and went to hell." "It might be worse," said the preacher. The friend came unglued: "man alive, how could it be worse?" to which the pastor replied: "it might be true."

A man died and approached the Pearly Gates. St. Peter told him heaven was getting crowded so he had to test people with the point system. If he got to 100 points he could enter. The man told Peter that he gave to the poor. Peter marked him down for 3 points. The man thought again, then said that he tithed. Peter added one point. The man, desperately searching his memory, finally said that he never cussed. Peter added 1/2 a point. By now the man got very frustrated and said that at this rate he could only get in by the grace of God. Peter replied, "Come on in!"

An 85 year old couple, having been married almost 60 years, die in a car crash. They had been in good health the last ten years, mainly due to the wife's interest in health food. When they reached the pearly gates, St. Peter took them to their mansion, which was decked out with a beautiful kitchen and master bath suite with Jacuzzi. As they "oohed and aahed", the old man asked Peter how much all this was going to cost. "It's free," Peter replied, Remember, this is Heaven.

"Next they went out back to see the championship golf course the home backed up to. They would have golfing privileges every day, and each week the course changed to a new one representing the great golf courses on Earth. The old man asked, "What are the green fees?" "This is heaven," St. Peter replied. "You play for free."

Next they went to the clubhouse and saw the lavish buffet lunch with the cuisine's of the world laid out. "How much to eat?" asked the old man. "Don't you understand yet?" St. Peter asked. "This is heaven. It's free!" "Well, where are the low fat and low cholesterol foods?" the old man asked timidly. "That's the best part...you can eat as much as you like of whatever you like and you never get fat and you never get sick. This is Heaven."

The old man looked at his wife and said, "You and your bran muffins. I could have been here ten years ago!"

A doctor, who had a reputation for helping arthritic patients, had a waiting room full of people. A little old lad, completely bent over in half, shuffled in slowly, leaning on her cane.

When her turn came, she shuffled into the doctor's office, and merged within half an hour walking completely erect, her head held high. A woman in the waiting room walked up to the little old lady, and exclaimed, "It's a miracle! You walked in bent in half and now you're walking erect. What did that doc do for you?"

"Miracle, schmiracle," the little old lady replied. "He gave me a longer cane."
