23rd Sunday Ordinary Time
Sept. 6, 2015

Then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, “Ephphatha!”—that is, “Be opened!” And immediately the man’s ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. — Mk 7:34-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CDO.

Father, may my Sunday worship not be football or entertainment, but rather true worship of You. Amen

God bless all you who labor! Happy Labor Day weekend and thank you to all who stepped forward so generously to teach in our CCD classes at both parishes. There is an article in the most recent "Bishop's Bulletin" about the importance and role of teachers in handing on the faith, which of course, includes within the family. There are also within the new "Bishop's Bulletin" some nice photos of the Legacy event.

Please keep our CCD teachers and students in your prayers for this new school year.

Thank you to Catholic United Financial Sacred Heart members for their sponsorship of the free CCD "Kick-off" meal prior to CCD classes this past Wednesday, and to those who provided cupcakes.

We are still collecting "gently used" 4" or 6" paintbrushes for a CYO project for Wed., Sept. 9th at Sacred Heart parish. (High schoolers are to come in old/work clothes and report to the parish hall at 7pm). We are planning to "freshen up" our parking lot stripes after Jari Mahoney gives a short presentation about the upcoming CYO mission trip.

On the east side of Sacred Heart cemetery, we are hoping to add some more longer concrete pads for memorial headstones. Members of the cemetery committee will be calling families who had already purchased plots in those areas about that project. Instead of the cost of an individual pad, you'll be asked to pre-pay $75 to Sacred Heart cemetery as part of the cost for putting in the longer pads. You can see the one that is already in place to know what we hope to do.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar Because the deaf man in today's gospel recognized his disability, he could seek help from Jesus. Deafness abounds in families: in our children (Oh dad, not that again!) in parents (“It is just a stage”) and in spouses (“Are you listening?”). Before Jesus can enter your home and heal, you must first recognize your deafness.

23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My Personal Work History

My first job was working in an orange juice factory, but I got canned...couldn't concentrate. Then I worked in the woods as a lumberjack, but I just couldn't hack it, so they gave me the ax. After that I tried to be a tailor, but I just wasn't suited for it ...mainly because it was a so-so job. Next I tried working in a muffler factory but that was too exhausting. Then I tried to be a chef -- figured it would add a little spice to my life, but I just didn't have the thyme. I attempted to be a deli worker, but any way I sliced it, I couldn't cut the mustard. My best job was being a musician, but eventually I found I wasn't noteworthy.

I studied a long time to become a doctor, but I didn't have any patience.

Next was a job in a shoe factory; I tried but I just didn't fit in.

I became a professional fisherman, but discovered that I couldn't live on my net income.

I managed to get a good job working for a pool maintenance company, but the work was just too draining.

So then I got a job in a workout center, but they said I wasn't fit for the job.

After many years of trying to find steady work I finally got a job as a historian until I realized there was no future in it.

My last job was working at Starbucks, but I had to quit because it was always the same old grind.
