Pastoral Message

To the good people of Saint Rita,

I don't remember where I read this story, or if I heard it, or if I just made it up, but I found it in my notes. I think it is a nice story to share with you as we celebrate the manifestation of the son of God to the world.

The day of the Epiphany a lady begged her husband to go with her to church. He refused. The idea that God became man, and a star guided Three Kings to Bethlehem seemed to him absurd (incredible) that he refused to believe, and therefore he refused to go to Church.

From his window he saw the heavy snow falling. He was drinking coffee and seeing the trees, and the birds. Then he was thinking that the birds would not be able to find the seeds that he had left them to be fed. He got his coat and went to open wide the door of his garage and have more seeds there for them, but the birds did not enter. He did all the possible to let them inside his garage, but they were too scared. He thought they were going to starve to death. They were a few meters from the food and the water, but they could find it.

"Oh, if I were a bird," he thought to himself, "I would teach them the way, and lead them to the water and the food."

At that moment the church's bell rang and he realized that the son of God and its star were there to show us the way that leads to eternal life. God could only teach us the way to the father and to eternal life by becoming one of us.

Jesus is true God and true man. By knowing him we know the father, by loving him, we love the father, by adoring him, we give homage to God our Father. Happy Epiphany!!

Fr. Manny

Mensaje Pastoral

A las buenas personas de Santa Rita:

No recuerdo en dónde leí esta historia, o si la escuché, o si la inventé, pero la encontré en mis notas. Pienso que es una bonita historia para compartir con ustedes mientras celebramos la manifestación del hijo de Dios al mundo.

El día de la Epifanía una señora le rogó a su esposo para que la acompañara a la iglesia. Él se negó. La idea de que Dios se hizo hombre, y una estrella guió a los Tres Reyes a Belén se le hacía absurda (increíble) y se negó a creer y por lo tanto se negó a ir a la iglesia.

Desde su ventana vio que estaba cayendo una espesa nieve. Estaba tomando café, viendo los árboles y los pájaros. Estaba pensando que los pájaros no iban a poder encontrar las semillas que él había dejado para alimentarlos. Se puso su abrigo y fue a abrir la amplia puerta de su garaje, donde tenía más semillas para ellos, pero los pájaros, no entraron. Hizo todo lo posible para dejarlos entrar en su garaje, pero estaban muy asustados. Pensó "se van a morir de hambre". Estaba a unos cuantos metros de la comida y el agua, pero no podían encontrarla.

"Oh, si solo fuera un pájaro", pensó, "les podría enseñar el camino, guiarlos al agua y a la comida".

En ese momento sonó la campana de la iglesia y se dio cuenta de que el hijo de Dios y su estrella estaban ahí para mostrarnos el camino que lleva a la vida eterna. Dios solo nos podía enseñar el camino al padre y a la vida eterna al convertirse en uno de nosotros.

Jesús es verdadero Dios y verdadero hombre. Al conocerlo conocemos al padre; al amarlo, amamos al padre; al adorarlo, rendimos tributo a Dios nuestro padre. ¡Feliz Epifanía!

Padre Manny
