Pastoral Message

This year for Lent, do something that will transform your life.

“Lord, there has been too much change in my life recently, and I feel overwhelmed. Because I try to be a responsible person, I sometimes forget that it is unwise for me to allow my sense of duty to override my common sense (...) Lord, help me to allow myself more time to rest, relax and pray.”

Does this sound like you? Then the Light of the World Retreat may be for you. Our parish is hosting its annual Light of the World Retreat the weekend of Presidents' Day, February 16 to February 19. The retreat provides people with the opportunity to have a personal encounter with Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. While this is a weekend retreat, people go home at the end of each day.

Throughout the weekend there are different opportunities to reflect on what is being said, to pray and to share. But the important element is that no matter where you are in your faith life, there is something for you. For some people the retreat marks a milestone in their lives, while for others it is the sowing of the faith seed that will bloom when the time is right.

The retreat is organized and staffed by volunteers from St. Rita Parish who have gone through the retreat at least once and know what it is like to be in your shoes. They lived the retreat and it had such an impact in their lives that now they are part of it.

One of the things we say in the retreat is that you should come as you are, and try to be as comfortable as possible. Nobody expects you to take notes and there is no test at the end of the retreat. What matters is what you experience during this weekend.

If you have questions and would like to know more about the retreat, contact Julieta Jacobo, Don Walter, or talk to the volunteers who will be in the gathering space this weekend.

Mensaje Pastoral

Esta Cuaresma ¿por qué no hacer algo que va a transformar su vida?

“Señor, últimamente ha habido muchos cambios en mi vida y me siento abrumado. Como trato de ser una persona responsable, a veces me olvido que no es bueno que mi sentido del deber esté por encima de mi sentido común (...) Señor, ayúdame a dedicar más de mi tiempo a descansar, relajarme y rezar”.

Si esta situación le suena conocida, entonces el retiro Luz del Mundo puede ser para usted. Nuestra parroquia está organizando la sesión anual de Luz del Mundo, la cual se realizará el fin de semana del Día de los Presidentes, del 16 al 19 de febrero. El retiro les da a los asistentes la oportunidad de tener un encuentro personal con Jesucristo a través del poder transformador del Espíritu Santo. El retiro es el fin de semana, pero los participantes regresan a casa todas las noches.

Durante el fin de semana hay diferentes oportunidades para reflexionar en lo que se ha hablado, para orar y para compartir. Pero lo más importante es que no importa en qué momento se encuentren en su vida de fe, el retiro tiene algo para usted. Para algunos este retiro es un momento muy importante en sus vidas, para otros es el sembrar de una semilla de fe que dará fruto en el momento adecuado.

El retiro es organizado y presentado por voluntarios de Santa Rita, quienes han hecho el retiro por lo menos una vez y saben lo que es estar en el lugar de los participantes. Ellos han vivido el retiro y este tuvo tal impacto en sus vidas que ahora son parte de este proceso.

Algo que mencionamos con frecuencia es que las personas que participan lo hacen sin pretender ser algo que no son y tratamos de que se sientan tan cómodos como sea posible. Nadie espera que tomen notas y no hay ningún examen al final del retiro. Lo que importa es la experiencia vivida durante este fin de semana.

Si usted tiene preguntas o necesita más información, llame a Olga Bourge al 630-892-9706 o platique con alguno de los voluntarios que van a estar en la sala de acogimiento este fin de semana.

Featured CD

Contemporary Sainthood

In this incredible double feature, Mark Hart illuminates what it means to seek sanctity in the 21st century. In the first presentation, Mark discusses unleashing the power of the Holy Spirit and becoming who we are meant to be: saints. In the second presentation Mark talks about the dangers of putting human expectations on our supreme God. These two talks will be sure to jump start your spiritual life and shed some light on what it means to be a contemporary saint.

Cultura de la vida; Cultura de la muerte

Luis Soto nos lleva a través de la Escritura para explorar las raíces mismas de la cultura de la vida y de la cultura de la muerte, las cuales continúan oponiéndose una a la otra hasta nuestros días. Escucha esta plática y descubre las mentiras que engañan a muchos para que así puedas ser parte de la solución y construir una sociedad que respete la vida y dignidad de todas las personas de acuerdo al plan de Dios.

Vocation Corner: Forgiving Ourselves!

One of the most powerful actions that we can perform in our lives is forgiveness. When we hold onto things rather than letting them go, all they do is hold us down. This of course makes sense in regards to dealing with hurts that others have caused us, but do we ever think about the need to forgive ourselves? So often we hold on to weaknesses from the past or to failures from long ago, and these memories keep us from having the confidence that we need so that we can step out in Faith and to go when God is calling us to go. It's as if we've fallen down again and again, and we're afraid to get back up because we fear that we'll simply fall again. Well, it's probably true that we will fall again, but as long as you take a few steps forward (even just one step makes a difference!) then it's worth all of the effort. On the other hand, if we stay down, we have a 0% chance of ending up where God is calling us, and if we don't try to follow, then we'll most likely not find the peace and the joy that we all seek. So today, do what you need to do to forgive yourself, and let God pick you back up. A great resource for this is the sacrament of confession, when we can be assured that God wipes it all away. Since God wipes it all away, we need to try to do the same in our hearts and minds!

- Fr. Romke
