INDULGENCES FOR THE SOULS IN PURGATORY

A plenary indulgence (applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory) may be obtained by the faithful who visit any parish church or public oratory and there recite one Our Father and one Apostles' Creed.

Partial indulgences for the Poor Souls may be obtained by those who say the prayer Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domini, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace ("Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace").

JUBILEE OF FATIMA - 1917-2017

OCTOBER - Month of the Holy Rosary

Blanche of Castille, Queen of France, was deeply grieved because twelve years after her marriage she was still childless. When Saint Dominic went to see her he advised her to say her rosary every day to ask God for the grace of motherhood, and she faithfully carried out his advice. In 1213 she gave birth to her eldest child, Philip, but the child died in infancy. The Queen's fervor was nowise dulled by this disappointment; on the contrary, she sought Our Lady's help more than ever before. She had a large number of rosaries given out to all members of the court and also to people in several cities of the kingdom, asking them to join her in entreating God for a blessing that this time would be complete. Thus, in 1215, Saint Louis was born—the prince who was to become the glory of France and the model of all Christian kings.

What really matters in life is that we are loved by Christ and that we love Him in return. In comparison to the love of Jesus, everything else is secondary. And, without the love of Jesus, everything is useless.

VENERABLE SERVANT OF GOD CASIMIR WYSZYNSKI

Father Casimir served the Lord with great zeal as a Marian and was respected and recognized among his contemporaries as well. He is credited with expanding and strengthening the Marian Order during the first half of the 18th century. It was under his leadership that the Marians established new foundations in Lithuania and neighboring countries, as well as in Portugal. It was thanks to Fr. Casimir Wyszynski's efforts that the Marians became truly international in membership, attracting not only Poles and Lithuanians, but Ruthenians, Portuguese, Czechs, Hungarians, French, and Italians. It can be said that under Fr. Casimir's leadership, the charism of the Order, at first envisioned by St. Stanislaus Papczynski, began to be fully realized. The Marians began to be clearly recognized as an Order which honored the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary and prayed for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

Two priorities stood out during Fr. Casimir's generalship: the role of the Blessed Virgin Mary in salvation history and the charisms of the Marian founder, St. Stanislaus. Fr. Casimir's close affinity with the spirit of the founder fired his own work and inspired the dynamic expansion of the Order during the 18th century. Burning with missionary zeal, Fr. Casimir himself went to Portugal and personally established the first Marian monastery for the Iberian Peninsula on Mount Balsamo. It is there that he died in 1755. Two centuries later, in December of 1989, Pope John Paul II signed the document marking the first step in the process leading to an official declaration of sainthood, the Decree of Heroic Virtues for Fr. Casimir Wyszynski. Thus, he now bears the title "Venerable Servant of God."

Cards with a prayer seeking graces through his intercession are available in the vestibule

HOLY INNOCENTS BOOKSHELF

Prayers and Practices for the Souls in Purgatory by Fr. Dan Cambra, MIC

Drawing from his own past contributions to the Holy Souls Sodality newsletter and the writings of his brother Marians, including Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC; Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC; Fr. Chris Alar, MIC; and more, Fr. Cambra has gathered together a collection of pieces on various elements of Catholic doctrine on Purgatory, demonstrating that it really does exist and we really are obligated to pray for the dead. Sharing a wealth of devotional practices, all with remarkable power to aid the Holy Souls in Purgatory, Fr. Dan has gathered an essential treasure trove of teaching and practice on one of the most neglected (and yet most essential) of the works of mercy. Perfect reading for the month of November.

Memorare – a Powerful Prayer

Mother Teresa's Emergency Novena Prayer
9 Memorares

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Keep this Novena in mind to pray for the many minor and major crises in your life and in the world.

The Letter

Dear Friend,

How are you? I just had to send a note to tell you how much I care about you.

I saw you yesterday as you were talking with your friends. I waited all day hoping you would want to talk with me too. I gave you a sunset to close your day and a cool breeze to rest you -- and I waited. You never came. It hurt me -- but I still love you because I am your friend.

I saw you sleeping last night and longed to touch your brow, so I spilled moonlight upon your face. Again I waited, wanting to rush down so we could talk. I have so many gifts for you! You awoke and rushed off to work. My tears were in the rain.

If you would only listen to me! I love you! I try to tell you in blue skies and in the quiet green grass. I whisper it in leaves on the trees and breathe it in colors of flowers, shout it to you in mountain streams, give the birds love songs to sing. I clothe you with warm sunshine and perfume the air with nature scents. My love for you is deeper than the ocean, and bigger than the biggest need in your heart!

Ask me! Talk with me! Please don't forget me. I have so much to share with you!

I won't hassle you any further. It is YOUR decision. I have chosen you and I will wait -- because I love you.

I love you, Your friend,
Jesus

THOUGHTS OF ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Dearest children, in difficulties, in darkness, in weaknesses, in dejection remember that paradise... paradise... is approaching. Every day that passes is a whole day less to wait. Courage, then! She awaits us there to clasp us to her heart. Also, pay no heed to the devil, if he ever want to make you believe that heaven exists, but not for you, because, even if you had committed all possible sins, one single act of perfect love washes everything clean, to the point that not even a shadow remains (KW509)

This life shall pass and then your true reward will begin. Nothing, not even the smallest effort, even the smallest suffering embraced for the glory of God will escape a lavish reward and that for all eternity...

As we can see from history, God will reward not only what we have done, but also what we would have desired to do, even though we did not have enough strength to put into effect. We should desire, then but desire without limits! (KW1248)

The September/October issue of Fr. Stravinskas' The Catholic Response magazine is available in the Gift Shop in the Parish Office for $5.00

Often children who have died before birth have no grave or headstone, and sometimes not even a name. At The Church of The Holy Innocents, we invite you to name your child(ren) and to have the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "BOOK OF LIFE". Here, a candle is always lit in their memory. All day long people stop to pray. On the first Monday of every month, our 12:15pm Mass is celebrated in honor of these children and for the comfort of their families. We pray that you will find peace in knowing that your child(ren) will be remembered at the Shrine and honored by all who pray here.

We will inscribe the names of babies who have died before and at birth in our Book of Life, and as always, we invite you to visit the Shrine if you are in New York City.
