Scripture Reflection

Throughout history, people have needed new insights, messages and affirmation regarding who God is and the reality of God's presence in their lives.

How do we know who or what we can trust, especially in troubling times? Jesus' followers grew in their understanding of who he was — sometimes gradually, sometimes suddenly, as in today's story of the Transfiguration.

We are no different. The important thing is to keep growing in our understanding and our commitment.

PLAY SYNOPSIS:

In this ingenious meeting of two Victorian classics, Dr. Watson visits his old friend Sherlock Holmes on Christmas Eve, finding him in a dark and misanthropic mood, planning to retire from the dull work of solving crimes. But soon, Holmes is visited by the ghost of his great enemy Professor Moriarity, who warns Holmes that he is heading towards his own damnation and tells him of an upcoming visit by three spirits. During the visits that follow, we learn about Holmes' childhood and his lost love, the chaos that his early retirement has caused his friends and associates throughout London, and finally a terrifying future: Holmes sees himself, a cold creature of pure intellect, supplying weapons to the battlefields of the First World War. Waking on Christmas morning, the repentant Holmes makes amends with his friends and rededicates himself to his higher purpose.
