Scripture Reflection

What does it mean to be called, and how should we respond? Today we hear two powerful stories about God's call and those who heard it.

In both stories, the call comes without warning, offers no explanation, and requires openness and risk from the ones called. It is safe to assume that we, too, will be called over and over again. When, where, how and why remain unknown. But we can also assume that God is behind it. The rest is up to us.

Notes from Social Action

Baltimore Sanctuary Network Meeting

Casa de Maryland has designated this weekend as "Immigrant Weekend" to honor all immigrants. Please join us this afternoon at 2 PM in the Community Center as we join with our partner congregation from St. Bartholomew Episcopal Church on Edmondson Ave.

Everyone from the immigrant and non-immigrant communities is invited to attend. We want and need representation from all of our immigrant communities—African, Filipino, and Latino. This will be a chance to meet and socialize with each other, share ideas and concerns, plan future actions and activities here at St. Gabriel and with our partners from St. Bartholomew. Refreshments will be served.

St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Bin

The clothing bin located between the school and the annex is for the collection of new and good used, but, still usable, clothing. There is a sign on the bin that says the items must be placed in plastic bags and put inside of the bin. The common-sense reason for this is so that the clothing is not destroyed by the elements as has happened in the past on a few occasions.

Last weekend two large, leaf-size bags were placed on the ground in front of the bin. Each was filled to the top and the bags were open. If we had not discovered the bags on Sunday, the contents would have been ruined on Monday.

If for some reason you are unable to put your donations in small plastic bags and place them inside the bin, it would be better if you took them to either Planet Aid or Goodwill, both of which are located on Baltimore National Pike.

Food Pantry

The pantry is in need of all types of non-perishable food items as well as paper products and household cleaning items and pet food.

Parents, please encourage your children to pick out a food item they would like to share and put it in the basket on the altar during the offertory collection. If everyone brought just one item every time he/she comes to church, the pantry shelves would always be fully stocked. Thank you for your generosity.
