Scripture Reflection

When given seemingly impossible tasks or if we carry burdens of fear and doubt, the Lord does not abandon us.

When we question the presence of the Lord in the midst of our very human struggles, he reminds us that he is the living bread that came down from heaven. If we taste and see the goodness of the Lord, if we eat this bread and fervently ask to become what we receive, then anger will dissipate in our lives.

The marks of faith in Jesus — kindness, forgiveness and compassion will define our lives.

SCHOOL CLOSING III

Since my last publication on the status of our school building in the Spring of 2017, we have written a contract with Coldwell Banker in June 2017. Coldwell Banker has worked with several clients throughout the last year. These clients are engaged in day care pre-school, education and moral development of youth, and they run programs that are conducted after school hours and supplement the school curriculum. While the groups have been very interested in leasing our school building because of its functionality and location, they could not raise the necessary capital.

In May of this year, "Leaders of Tomorrow" submitted a LOI (Letter of Intent) with the needed capital and documentation for a Summer program and are currently renting our school. The mission of The leaders of Tomorrow, as you may have read in our bulletin, heard in announcements in church, as well as experienced in a presentation by the director, is to awaken the Arts in Education. St. Gabriel Parishioners were invited to enroll their children at a discount.

Coldwell Banker has been working with a new potential client who wants to lease the school building with an option to purchase after a period of time. The hope is to begin a lease for occupancy in the upcoming school year. Documents needed for the lease are not complete at this time and when they are submitted in the LOI I will be able to share more information.

If you have suggestions or would like to join The School Reutilization Committee and share in the interviews with prospective clients, please call 410-944-2106 or email me at tphillips@stgabrielch.org.

Msgr. Tom Phillips
