Happy New Year Parishioners of St. Rose of Lima!

The Social Action Committee would like to thank you for your generous donations throughout 2014. We could not continue with our ministry's mission without your prayers, support and donations. If you've ever wondered where your monetary donations go...here's an idea of what we've been able to do with your help in 2014:

994 boxes of pasta	356 cans of pasta	385 spaghetti sauce	938 boxes of mac-n-cheese
556 jars of pb	535 jars of jelly	526 cans of beans	482 boxes of potatoes
372 cans of veggies	942 cans of tuna	842 cans of soup	569 boxes of cereal
732 cans of fruit	983 boxes of jello	611 dessert mixes	171 boxes of crackers
158 boxes of tea	522 rolls of TP	40 turkeys	96 hams

This is what we've purchased with your in kind donations...the totals don't include what you've donated in actual food! Our school and parish families have brought bags upon bags into our pantry along with hams and turkeys for all 3 holidays.

Your donations have also paid for the shipping expenses of all the Kentucky Train boxes, at least 40 boxes total for 2014, as well. Sister Mary Jane and her parishioners are truly grateful for all the wonderful donations.

We've been blessed to provide for the families in our immediate parish and serving area and have also helped our sister parish, Holy Cathedral in Camden, NJ.

You, our parishioners, are the true heart and soul of this ministry. We, the ministry members, are just the workers who help make what you give get into the proper hands that are in need.

Thank you and have a Happy and Healthy 2015!

“Ordinary Time”

This Sunday the priests are back to wearing green vestments at Mass. Actually, we started wearing green this past Monday. We have once again entered what is called “Ordinary Time” in English. But it comes from the Latin Tempus Per Annum which literally means "time throughout the year". Ordinary Time occurs outside of other liturgical time periods, periods in which specific aspects of the mystery of Christ are celebrated. According to The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar which is the handbook of liturgical laws that we follow during the church year, the days of Ordinary Time, especially the Sundays, "are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects."

Ordinary Time encompasses that part of the Christian year that does not fall within the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, or Easter. The Catholic Church celebrates two periods of the year as Ordinary Time. The first period begins after the Feast Baptism of the Lord. This first period of Ordinary Time begins on the Monday after the Baptism of the Lord. That's why today is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, without there being a first Sunday in Ordinary Time (as I mentioned above, Ordinary Time started last Monday). This first period of Ordinary Time runs until the Tuesday evening before Ash Wednesday. The Second period of Ordinary Time runs from the Monday after Pentecost until Evening Prayer is said the night before Advent begins. This includes Christ the King Sunday, the final Sunday of Ordinary Time.

Ordinary time of course does not mean "ordinary," in the sense of being boring or regular and is not somehow a "break" from the Liturgical Year. The opposite is actually true: Ordinary Time celebrates, as previously mentioned, "the mystery of Christ in all its aspects." Many important liturgical celebrations fall during Ordinary Time, including, Trinity, Corpus Christi, All Saints, the Assumption of Mary, and Christ the King. In addition, the Church continues to celebrate Saints days and other events. The major feasts, when occurring on a Sunday, trump the regular Ordinary Time Sunday lessons and liturgy.

During Ordinary Time, green vestments are worn. Green is the color of hope and in many ways should be our “ordinary” perspective on life. We are always hopeful because Jesus has saved us from sin and death; so let's not allow this “time throughout the year” to be ordinary, but may the love and grace of God help our lives at every moment of time to be filled with hope.

God bless you,

Father Joseph Byerley

Spiritual Center Library

She was Jewish and Christian. She was joyful and sorrowful. She was exalted yet humble. She was full of grace, and all generations still call her "Blessed," as she predicted they would. Many religions, besides Catholic, call her "Blessed," including some Christian denominations, as well as Moslems, and the Hopi and Lakota Indian tribes. She was the model disciple, having done everything that was asked of her. Christ did his first miracle at her request. She is the woman referred to in the book of Revelations. Healings and conversions have occurred at her apparition sites around the world. Many historical events, such as the end of WW II, have occurred on or near her feastdays. We live in a culturally divided world, but this woman, our Blessed Mother Mary, has touched the lives of millions and called all to repentance and prayer. She may well be instrumental in the quest for world peace and respect for life, if we allow her to be. In our Spiritual Center Library, this week, will be displays of books, videos, cassettes, DVDs, medals, statues, and CDs all pertaining to Mary. Stop in for inspiring materials you can borrow. Some items will be available that you may keep.

Is Your Marriage Tearing You Apart?

If there is little or no meaningful communication, if you are frustrated, hurt or angry with each other, if you are considering separation or divorce, Retrouvaille can help. Retrouvaille is a French word meaning "rediscovery" and it helps couples put the pieces back together and rebuild loving relationships. It begins with a weekend experience in which husbands and wives are helped to re-establish communication and to gain new insights into themselves as individuals and as a couple. The next program will be held at the Malvern Retreat Center in Malvern, PA on Feb 13 - 15. You will be asked to make a donation to cover the expenses of lodging, food and materials, but no couple is ever denied the chance to heal and renew their marriage because they are facing financial difficulties.

For more information or to register for the weekend, you can either call 800-470-2230 or visit the web site www.HelpOurMarriage.com
