Superstition

Superstition is still a very common phenomenon today. One would think in our modern age we would have progressed beyond it but even as we have become more sophisticated, the roots of superstition run deep. As always, it helps to begin with how the Church understands the concept of superstition, and as usual, we can go to the Catechism for instruction. Superstition is when we separate a religious practice from the proper spiritual disposition of the heart and mind that must accompany it. As the Catechism states, “To attribute the efficacy of prayers or of sacramental signs to their mere external performance, apart from the interior dispositions that they demand, is to fall into superstition.”(CCC n.2111)

In other words, when we believe that the mere carrying out of some external religious practice is what causes some desired outcome, we are being superstitious. In this regard, superstition is related to magic or sorcery, by which one attempts to “tame occult powers, so as to place them at one’s service.”(CCC n.2117) Anytime we seek by means of some ritualistic practice to control the outcome of future events is superstitious. I often think of the practice of putting a statue of the Blessed Mother in the window to ensure nice weather. No statue of Mary or of Jesus or of any saint has the “power” to affect the weather. It is superstitious to think so. While we can certainly ask the Blessed Mother to intercede with her Son Jesus on our behalf so that if it is God’s will we have nice weather for a certain event, we cannot attribute any power to merely moving the location of a statue from one place to another.

Wearing medals of saints or other Christian symbols is a good thing; by honoring the saints, asking for their intercession with God, and reflecting on the example of their lives we can be helped to come closer to God. However, thinking that by the mere act of wearing a particular medal or other sacramental, we will be protected in some way is falling into superstition. No inanimate object has any power to change the course of events. It is God and God alone who has that power. We can (and should) constantly turn to God in prayer, asking him for our needs and seeking his protection. But we should avoid attributing power to any object or external practice.

So that means, of course, no upside down statue of St. Joseph buried in the yard in order to sell your house. By all means, ask St. Joseph to pray that you sell your house quickly, but you are not going to get an extra fast sale by treating an image of St. Joseph with such disrespect.

In the end, we need to make sure that we are always clear in our understanding of our religious practices. When they are bound to our hearts as an offering to God that we place before him to act on according to his will, we will never have to fear falling into superstition.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Father, we thank you for your tremendous gift of the Sacrament of Marriage. Help us to witness to its glory by a life of growing intimacy. Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more One in Heart, Mind and Body. Strengthen our communication and help us become living signs of your love. Make us grow more in love with the church so we may renew the Body of Christ. Make us a sign of unity in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother. Amen"

Spiritual Center Library

Few people know that our former Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, as a newly ordained priest, was interested in young couples and spent hundreds of hours counseling them. In 1960, he wrote a play entitled "The Jeweler's Shop."

"and later, it was made into a movie. It is about 3 young engaged couples during World War II, and it is available in our Spiritual Center Library as video #7. If you are thinking about marriage or planning a wedding, we invite you to use the books, tapes, and videos about marriage and relationships that are available in our Spiritual Center Library. A variety of subjects is presented worthy of your attention, such as communication, feelings, sympathy, shared interests, finances, alcoholism, in-laws, children, religion, choosing the right partner, and a sense of commitment. Basic facts are explained, such as "Do men REALLY talk less than women by nature?" ; and "Is there a higher rate of divorce among couples who live together before marriage?" Be informed, be wise, and plan your wedding to last a lifetime.

Catholic School Tuition Transfer Grant

St. Rose of Lima School is happy to announce the Tuition Transfer Grant for student that transfer to St. Rose of Lima School from any non-Catholic school for the 2015-2016 school year.

The objective of the grant is two-fold:

- Through this grant, we can further our mission and bring families back to Catholic School and aid in building relationships with Jesus.
- In an effort to continue our mission of providing an outstanding Catholic education to all, we look to fill empty seats within classrooms that are not at full capacity. The grant will also generate revenue from an otherwise “empty-seat” and will enable us to maintain a healthy and vigorous budget that will keep tuition affordable for all.

HIGHLIGHTS	ELIGIBILITY
2 Year Grant
Year 1 ~ $750	Prospective parents must apply for the grant
Year 2 ~ $500	Open to students entering 1 st - 7 th grades.
	Classrooms above capacity are ineligible.
	Grant will apply to each child within a family unit.

Current St. Rose Families can also benefit:

Current families at St. Rose can also benefit through the Catholic School Tuition Transfer Grant. By assisting or sponsoring a new family transfer into St. Rose of Lima School, you will be eligible to receiving a recruiting fee of $500 per-family to be deducted from your family’s tuition for the 2015-2016 school year.
