LITURGY CORNER

Alleluia, He is Risen! Today we begin our 8-day-long celebration, the Octave of Easter. Pope Benedict XVI says, "Faith in the Resurrection of Jesus says that there is a future for every human being; the cry for unending life which is a part of the person is indeed answered. ... God exists: that is the real message of Easter. Anyone who even begins to grasp what this means also knows what it means to be redeemed." In the Sequence which is chanted on Easter Sunday, we are asked to offer thankful praises. Through Jesus we are reconciled to the Father. We have hope. During these 8 days we celebrate by praying the Gloria at each daily Mass, by Father's use of the Preface of Easter, in hearing through the Gospel reactions to Jesus' Resurrection. From now until Pentecost we will be in the Easter Season. We will hear from the Acts of the Apostles how the Church grows and spreads. Alleluia, He is Risen! The parish welcomes our neophytes, those who came into the Church at the Easter Vigil, as we continue to keep them in our prayers. Blessed Easter, Gay Snell

"Faith in the resurrection of Christ never misleads us, and hope in our own resurrection
never deceives us,
because God the Father
both restored our Lord to life and will restore us to life too by virtue of his power."
—St. Bede the Venerable

"Tis the spring of souls today:
Christ has burst his prison;
and from three days' sleep in death
as a sun has risen."
—St. John of Damascus

"Yesterday I was crucified with him;
today I am glorified with him;
yesterday I died with him;
today I am quickened with him;
yesterday I was buried with him;
today I am waking with him
from the sleep of death."
—St. Gregory the Theologian
