LITURGY CORNER

According to The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, paragraphs 276 to 277:

Thurification or incensation is an expression of reverence and of prayer, as is signified in Sacred Scripture (cf. Ps 140:2, Rev 8:3).

276. Incense may be used optionally in any form of Mass:

- During the Entrance Procession;
- At the beginning of Mass, to incense the cross and the altar;
- At the procession before the Gospel and the proclamation of the Gospel itself;
- After the bread and the chalice have been placed on the altar, to incense the offerings, the cross, and the altar, as well as the Priest and the people;
- At the elevation of the host and the chalice after the Consecration.

277. The Priest, having put incense into the thurible, blesses it with the Sign of the Cross, without saying anything. Before and after an incensation, a profound bow is made to the person or object that is incensed, except for the altar and the offerings for the Sacrifice of the Mass. Note that the Priest and Deacon bow, incense, and bow again. We stand as the Deacon approaches to incense the people and remain standing as we go into the Eucharistic Prayer.

Three swings of the thurible are used to incense: the Most Blessed Sacrament, a relic of the Holy Cross and images of the Lord exposed for public veneration, the offerings for the Sacrifice of the Mass, the altar cross, the Book of the Gospels, the paschal candle, the Priest, and the people.

Two swings of the thurible are used to incense relics and images of the Saints exposed for public veneration; this should be done, however, only at the beginning of the celebration, following the incensation of the altar.

The altar is incensed with single swings of the thurible in this way:

- If the altar is freestanding with respect to the wall, the Priest incenses walking around it;
- If the altar is not freestanding, the Priest incenses it while walking first to the right-hand side, then to the left.

The cross, if situated on the altar or near it, is incensed by the Priest before he incenses the altar; otherwise, he incenses it when he passes in front of it.

The Priest incenses the offerings with three swings of the thurible or by making the Sign of the Cross over the offerings with the thurible before going on to incense the cross and the altar.

And now you know... Have a blessed Lenten Season, Gay Snell

Every Life Matters

San Clemente Parish is scheduled to pray on the following dates:

Friday, February 23, 2018

Saturday, March 10, 2018

From Wednesday, February 14th through Sunday, March 25th our pro-life community in Albuquerque will unite with cities across America and around the world for a massive, coordinated, pro-life mobilization effort. This is an attempt to bring together people of all faiths to pray for an end to the loss of pre-born human life and for the healing of those affected by abortion.

40 Days for Life* is a focused pro-life effort that consists of:

- 40 Days of Prayer & Fasting
- 40 Days of peaceful vigil
- 40 days of public witness

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is scheduled for the noon hour each Monday through Thursday during Lent.

We will also have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every Friday during Lent following the 7:00 a.m. Mass.

Benediction will take place at 5:45 p.m., Mass at 6:00 p.m., followed by Stations of the Cross at 7:00 p.m.

Please sign up for Adoration for at least one hour each Friday. It is important that there are enough adorers and that Our Lord is never left alone. It is also important that no one is left by themselves during their Holy Hour.

Please think and pray about what your Lenten devotions will include this season.

If you would like to learn more about Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, or to sign up for a specific time, please call the Parish Office at 865-7385. You can also look for the clipboard in the entrance of the church, to sign up.

GABRIEL PROJECT

The Parenting Class model is well established because of your generous donations and prayers. Thank you and God bless you!

February 2018 Parenting Class Schedule

Feb. 22 - Health Promotion and Disease Prevention/Valencia Urgent Care Provider

Parenting classes are held on Thursday at 4:00pm in the San Clemente Parish Hall. All are welcome!

We need a volunteer to co-facilitate the Gabriel Project Parenting Class Program. We also need volunteers on Thursday afternoons to help with meal preparation and childcare. If you can help, please call 865-7385, and leave a message for Julie. Due to your generous donations, we have been able to help a number of families. We help anyone who is pregnant and young families who are in need of baby equipment throughout Valencia County.

Due to a change in our storage status, we cannot accept baby equipment at this time, i.e.; pack-n-plays, and strollers. We are in need of diapers sizes 3, 4, & 5, baby wipes, and blankets for the winter. If you are able to help with these items, you can drop them off at the Parish Office during business hours.

BRING THE VOCATIONS CHALICE TO YOUR HOME

Many of you have enjoyed the privilege of hosting the Vocations Chalice in your home. We are currently seeking individuals or families who would also welcome the Vocations Chalice in their home. When you bring the chalice home, we ask that you pray in front of it daily for the intention of vocations. You will be given a pamphlet with prayer ideas, and intentions you might include in your prayers. If you are interested in hosting the Vocation Chalice, please call the parish office at 865-7385, and leave a message for Ann Krom.

The Saint John Paul II Adoration Chapel
