“Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you and for you alone? He burns with the desire to come into your heart....don’t listen to the demon, laugh at him, and go without fear to receive the Jesus of peace and love.”

St. Therese of Lisieux

Let nothing convince you that God does not want you. He desires so much to see you and love you. Consider spending some time in prayer in our Adoration Chapel.

This week we will be collecting names of deceased family members to be prayed for on All Souls Day. If you’d like to participate, send a list with your student. These names will be placed on the Altar and prayed for throughout the month of November.

3rd grade and CIC II Parents- There will be a mandatory parent meeting for all First Holy Communion parents this week. The meetings will be held in the Gathering Room during your student’s class time. Parents should plan to attend one of the meeting times listed below:

The face-to-face vision of God will produce in us a love of God so strong, so absolute, that nothing can ever destroy it nor diminish it. It will produce a love built on admiration, respect, and gratitude, but above all on friendship, with the simplicity and familiarity that this love presupposes. Through such a love we will enjoy above all else that God is God, that He is infinitely holy, infinitely merciful, infinitely just.

- Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange

LITURGY CORNER

In addition to the liturgies of Holy Mass and the Sacraments is Christian Prayer: The Liturgy of the Hours or The Divine Office. Two aspects of the Liturgy of the Hours were established very early on: the praying of the Psalms and the consecration of every hour to God. The format currently used was completed in 1970 with the last revision in 1985. Taken literally, a prayer is offered every 3 hours, day and night; a feat still found accomplished in some religious orders. The clergy are asked, and vow, to pray at least Morning and Evening Prayer. Included in that prayer can be the Office of Readings, extra Readings and Psalms, that often are prayed with Morning Prayer, but can be prayed at any time during the day. To pray the Christian Prayer is to pray at least Morning (Lauds) and Evening (Vespers) Prayer. At the beginning of the Christian Prayer book is the Decree and the General Instruction and the General Principles. Reading these will give the person new to the Liturgy of the Hours a better understanding of what the Hours are and where to begin. The Psalter, or Psalms, is set up in four-week cycles. Contained within the book with the Psalms are the Proper of Seasons, Proper of Saints, Hymns, and the Ordinary. The Ordinary, which is the order of the prayer itself, is found between the Proper of Seasons and the Psalter. As in any liturgical book, the rubrics, written in red, give instructions that help with the recitation of the Hours. In praying the Christian Prayer one prays with the whole Church—just like Holy Mass.

Praying for vocations is the most powerful way to support vocations. A vocation is a call from the Holy Spirit, a gift from God that is nurtured in prayer. When we pray for vocations, we lift up to our Father those men and women whom He is calling to follow Him in a very special way.

Saints Peter and Clement, detail of the twelfth century mosaic in the apse of the San Clemente Basilica, ia Labicans, Roma 95

Named in the Roman Canon

According to the traditional order familiar from the Roman Canon of the Mass, Clement was the 4th Pope after Peter, Linus and Cletus. He was one of the first generation of Christians after the apostles.

St. Clement

Fathers of the Church

Irenaeus, writing in the 2nd century, claims that Clement received the teaching of the apostles at first hand, and Origen, some decades later, called him “a disciple of the apostles”.

Middle Ages tradition

Fourth century accounts held that Clement was exiled to the Crimea by the emperor Trajan, put to work in the mines, and eventually thrown into the sea with an anchor round his neck for making too many converts. Angels made him a grave on the sea bed, which was uncovered once a year by an exceptionally low tide. The story continues that St Cyril on his way to evangelise the Khazars miraculously recovered the relics of Clement’s body and the anchor in the Crimea and brought them to Rome in 868, and that Pope Adrian II placed them in the Basilica of San Clemente.

Art and patronage

In art, Clement is often shown with an anchor or with a tiara and 3-branched cross. The 9th century frescoes in San Clemente in Rome depict his life and legend.

In London the Church of St Clement Danes (the parish emblem of which is an anchor) is the best-known dedication to him in England. He is also patron of Trinity House in London, the body responsible for lighthouses and lightships in and around Britain.

“Follow the saints, because those who follow them will become saints.”
