I AM THE VINE

“By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

May 3, 2015

~John 15:8

Welcome! We are glad you are here to join us in worship in the celebration of the Eucharist (Mass). At the Eucharist, the Church comes together to hear the Word of the Lord, to pray for the world's needs, to offer the sacrifice of the Cross in praise and thanks to God, to receive Christ Jesus in communion, and then to be sent forth in the Spirit as disciples of the Gospel. If you are not familiar with the Mass, the Order of the Mass can be found on pages 3-29 of the Breaking Bread hymnal. We call particular attention to the text of the Gloria on page 6 and the Nicene Creed on page 9. The scripture (Bible) readings for today's Mass can be found on page 159.

LIVING WATER CATHOLIC NEWS

Father Scott's May Prayer Intentions

That we may show reverence and love to our mothers, who have given us life and love.

That the children who are celebrating First Holy Communion this month may rejoice in the happiness of receiving the sacrament of the Eucharist.

That the Holy Spirit will give our staff and Pastoral Plan Writing Team light and strength to know His will, to make it their own, and to live it in their lives.

For those affected by the earthquake and aftershocks in Nepal.

That God will bless the new priests for the Archdiocese of Boston (May 23 ordinations) and make their priestly ministry strong, loving, and wise.

That God will be with our college graduates as they discern their life's work and guide them in the way they are called to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

That we will honor those who have given their lives in defense of God's gift of freedom and embrace the responsibility and commitment called forth by this gift to the truth that all people have a fundamental dignity before God.

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Question of the Week:

What How do you remain in Christ each day?

5th Sunday of Easter

A few months ago, a co-worker mentioned that it was her sister's birthday, but they had not spoken in several years. There was no animosity or problem, just a lack of initiative to pick up the phone and call. So, after a little coaxing, our friend picked up the phone and surprised her sister for her birthday. That call led to a wonderful reunion and the sisters have grown much closer.

It's easy to lose touch with people. A few distractions, a busy schedule, and family events makes time fly and we end up promising to call tomorrow, or write this week, or stop by sometime soon for a visit. It can be fun and worthwhile to pick up our old address book and contact the people who mean so much to us. A call or a card can mean so much and can help rekindle important friendships and bonds.

The same thing can happen with God. We get so busy with life that reading the Bible, spending more time praying, or going to Mass or Reconciliation gets put on the back burner. "I'll do it for Lent" doesn't do much to keep us in touch, especially if you make that promise in July. Dig through your incomplete spiritual resolutions and finish them. Get in touch with God today. Who knows, you might see Him tomorrow!
