

ST. ANSELM PARISH

2nd Sunday of Easter, April 23, 2017

A Message from Fr. Michael ...

Some weeks I am desperate for inspiration. Other weeks like this one, I have several ideas tumbling around in my head and it's hard to choose which one to write to you about. That was my dilemma as the print deadline approached when suddenly my good friend, Facebook, reminded me of something from 3 years ago, the death of Colombian writer Gabriel Garcia Marquez. Facebook again sent me his farewell letter, which is so good that I am compelled to share it with you. If Jesus had been a mere human being, I think he might have written something like this.

If God, for a second, forgot what I have become and granted me a little bit more of life, I would use it to the best of my ability.

I wouldn't, possibly, say everything that is in my mind, but I would be more thoughtful of all I say.

I would give merit to things not for what they are worth, but for what they mean to express.

I would sleep little, but I would dream more, because I know that for every minute we close our eyes, we waste 60 seconds of light.

I would walk while others stop; I would stay awake while others sleep.

If God would give me a little bit more of life, I would dress in a simple manner; I would place myself in front of the sun, leaving not only my body, but my soul naked at its mercy.

To all people, I would say how mistaken they are when they think that they stop falling in love when they grow old, without knowing that they grow old when they stop falling in love.

I would give wings to children, but I would leave it to them to learn how to fly by themselves.

BEING A CHRISTIAN
MEANS HAVING LOVE.
THAT IS UNBELIEVABLY DIFFICULT AND,
AT THE SAME TIME,
INCREDIBLY SIMPLE.
JOSEPH RATZINGER
(Pope Benedict XVI)
From his book Credo for Today

To old people, I would say that death doesn't arrive when they grow old, but with forgetfulness.

I have learned so much with you all; I have learned that everybody wants to live on top of the mountain, without knowing that true happiness is obtained in the journey taken and the path used to reach the top of the hill.

I have learned that when a newborn baby holds, with its little hand, his father's finger, it has trapped him for the rest of his life.

I have learned that a man has the right and obligation to look down at another man, only when that man needs help to get up from the ground.

Say always what you feel, not what you think. If I knew that today is the last time that I am going to see you asleep, I would hug you with all my strength and I would pray to the Lord to let me be the guardian angel of your soul.

If I knew that these are the last moments to see you, I would say "I love you."

There is always tomorrow, and life gives us another opportunity to do things right; but in case I am wrong, and today is all that is left to me, I would love to tell you how much I love you and that I will never forget you.

Tomorrow is never guaranteed to anyone, young or old. Today could be the last time to see your loved ones, which is why you mustn't wait; do it today, in case tomorrow never arrives. I am sure you will be sorry you wasted the opportunity today to give a smile, a hug, a kiss, and that you were too busy to grant them their last wish.

Keep your loved ones near you; tell them in their ears and to their faces how much you need them and love them. Love them and treat them well; take your time to tell them "I am sorry," "forgive me," "please," "thank you," and all those loving words you know.

Nobody will know you for your secret thoughts. Ask the Lord for wisdom and strength to express them.

Show your friends and loved ones how important they are to you.

Send this letter to those you love. If you don't do it today... tomorrow will be like yesterday, and if you never do it, it doesn't matter either, the moment to do it is now.

For you, with much love,

Your Friend,

Gabriel Garcia Marquez

I once worked for a vice-president who had on his desk a sign: Hazlo ahorita – Do it right now. Good advice. St. Anselm parishioners, thank you for making this such a great Parish. And rest assured, I love you.

FOOD DRIVE

St. Vincent de Paul Food Drive

April 22 - 23

SVDP volunteers continue to see approximately 10 poor families every week who are in desperate need of food and financial assistance. You are always extremely generous but unfortunately our food supply decreases rapidly. So we still need your help with a number of items.

On Saturday, April 22 (5:00 P.M. Mass) and Sunday, April 23, members of St. Anselm's St. Vincent de Paul will collect canned goods and non-perishable items at the Parish House circle driveway before and after each Mass. A bin will also be located in the Parish Center for parishioners attending the 10:30 A.M. and 5:30 P.M. Sunday Mass. May God Bless you for your generosity and concern for the poor in St. Louis!

Ordo for the Week

April 23 2nd Sunday of Easter

April 24 St. George, Martyr & Patron of England

Although St. George did not kill or even fight a dragon, he did confront and rebuke the Roman emperor Diocletian, of who Imperial Guard George was a member, for issuing an edict of persecution against the Christians. For being a Christian, Diocletian had him beheaded.

April 25 St. Mark, Evangelist

St. Mark was associated with St. Paul and St. Barnabas (who was Mark's cousin) on their missionary journey through the island of Cyprus. Later he accompanied St. Barnabas alone. We know also that he was in Rome with St. Peter and St. Paul. Tradition ascribes to him the founding of the Church in Alexandria, Egypt. St. Mark wrote his Gospel, probably in Rome sometime before the year 60 A.D.; he wrote it in Greek for the Gentile converts to Christianity.

April 29 St. Catherine of Siena

Her mystical experiences started when she was 6. She became a Dominican when she was 16, and her visions continued. In 1375, Our Lord gave her the Stigmata. She persuaded the Pope to return to Rome from Avignon. In 1377, when she died at age 33, she was trying to heal the Great Western Schism. Her letters, and a treatise called "a dialogue" are considered among the most brilliant writings in the history of the Catholic Church.

Eucharistic Adoration

Stewardship

stewardship.stanselmstl@att.net

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" - John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.

Greeters

Members of this ministry help worshipers be comfortable in our church by providing assistance and information before and after services. As a minister of hospitality, members strive to personally and warmly welcome those arriving for worship. First impressions are very powerful. For more information, please contact Leslie Foran at foran@primary.net.

A Message from the Acts of Kindness Ministry

We would like to thank everyone that attended our events, An Evening with Marie Kenyon and the play about human trafficking. The break-out sessions that followed Marie's talk were filled with lively discussions on the busing issue, human trafficking and breaking the school to prison pipeline. By hosting cover: a play about trafficking, we hoped to spread the word about sex trafficking here in St. Louis and how one organization, The Covering House, is trying to make a difference for the victims of this abuse.

In the near future, our committee will be taking bus rides to experience what people without transportation deal with on an everyday basis, especially as they try to get to work. A meeting with the transit authorities is in the works to discuss our experiences and the injustices of the system. We would encourage you to join us in our efforts to make a difference in all these areas of concern.

Please continue to look in the bulletin for upcoming events on social issues sponsored by other parishes in our community.

For more information about our ministry, please contact any of the following members: Julia Masetti, Ruthie Rockman, Pattie Schafer, Doss Margiotta, Bob Merenda, Linda Borchardt, Fr. Finnbar, and Deacon Jim Sigilito.

St. Anselm Parish Community invites you to four new Awakening Faith sessions at 6:30 P.M. in the Parish House.

God does not abandon anyone as they struggle with faith issues or life issues. God's love, forgiveness, and peace are always available in or out of the Church. No registration, No fee.
