3rd Sunday of Easter

Graduation is an annual rite of passage. Students gather to receive their degrees, accept accolades and honors, say good-bye to friends and teachers and then move on to the next chapter of their life. There may be some anxiety or uncertainty, but the overall mood of the day is one of pride, accomplishment and excitement. One phase ends and another one begins as the cycle of life continues and a new chapter is written.

Jesus closes one chapter of the Apostle's lives and opens another. He reassures them that what they see before them is real and He is truly present. He opens their minds to understand the Scriptures and then tells them what is ahead. They will preach the Gospel to all people, beginning at Jerusalem and extending to all the nations. The Apostles will continue the mission of Jesus as they teach, preach, heal, and forgive.

Faith is more than just a nice idea, so we need to act on it. Our lives are a witness to the work of Christ. If grace is real, if love is true and if faith makes a difference, others should see and notice. Conversion of souls is accomplished through the bold deeds and actions of those who follow the Lord. We preach, teach, heal, and forgive by what we do more than by what we say. What have you done lately to create your new chapter of faith?

3rd Sunday of Easter

After an intense disagreement or argument, it can be very difficult to get back to normal, especially when ugly things were said, or nasty comments were made. Even when we know it was done out of anger or frustration, the hurt can linger and hold us back from reconciling. Is it necessary to forgive and forget? Just how do you move on after being hurt?

It is easy to forgive, but very difficult to forget. When we forgive someone, we are looking beyond the offense to acknowledge the value and worth of the offender. Jesus did the same for us. While we yet sinners, He died for us. He saw and knew our worth in the sight of God. He did not forget our sin. He knew it well. Forgetting is not a component of forgiving.

Sometimes we just move on. We focus on the positive things in our relationship, in our family and in our lives. We do not dwell on the past, but rather move forward by loving others as we should. Grace and virtue, particularly faith, hope and love, have a healing power that makes us whole. We feel not only the destructive power of sin in our life, but also the restorative power of grace. So, forgive others as God forgives you and then move on and let grace do the rest.

Every lent, CRS coordinates the Rice Bowl program that helps individuals and organizations practice prayer, fasting, and almsgiving by making sacrifices and giving funds to help the needy throughout the world. Twenty-five percent of the money raised in the Archdiocese stays in the Archdiocese to fund programs that help the needy on a local level.

Now is the time to return your Rice Bowls. Please convert whatever coins you have in the boxes to either bills or a check. Place your donation in an envelope marked RICE BOWL and place it in the collection basket or in the box provided in the back of the church.

Thank you!

This weekend our second collection is for The Missionary Society of St. James the Apostle.

The Missionary Society of St. James the Apostle, founded by Richard Cardinal Cushing in 1958, is an international organization of diocesan missionary priests who volunteer a minimum of five years of their priestly lives to service in Peru and Ecuador. In their 50 years of service, the St. James Society has welcomed members from the United States as well as from Canada, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Australia, New Zealand, and the Philippines. They depend upon the prayers and the financial support of people like you who share their interest in spreading the good news of Jesus Christ and in creating a better world for people who have been called "The poorest of the poor."

Home Missions, Black and Native American

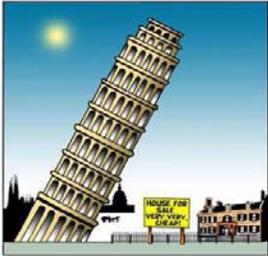

Next week's second collection supports three important national Catholic missions. The Home Missions collection subsidizes the evangelization and formation activities of mission diocese. The Black and Native American collection strengthens evangelization and outreach which would otherwise be in danger of disappearing among the Black, American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut communities of the United States.
