6th Sunday of Easter

A famous saying, used in politics and religion, says “Don’t listen to what I say, watch what I do.” It’s the opposite of another proverb, “Do as I say, not as I do.” Actions do indeed speak louder than words. What we do and how we act, especially when we think no one is watching, says more about our values and beliefs than any profession of faith, hope or love.

For a good idea to become a value, it has to move from the mind and heart to the hands and feet. It has to change our behavior and become visible by what we do. Generosity is not real until we give; faith is not real until we pray; kindness is not real until we treat others well. When we put our values into practice, it not only changes others, but it also changes us. The very practice of our beliefs helps them to grow stronger and makes them more a part of who we are and who we will become. This is why we try to instill in our children a sense of values and virtues at a young age. As soon as they begin to share with others, play nicely, and learn manners, the more likely it is that these traits will stick with them. It is a combination of example, practice and teaching that gives kids a concrete grasp of what it means to be a kind and loving Christian.

Overused and misunderstood, love has become a synonym for like, enjoy, desire, and want. We love everything from a new restaurant, to a pair of shoes, to people we admire. But to really love means more than just liking someone, or enjoying his or her company. Love means sacrifice and commitment and change. It means we give of ourselves so that someone else will benefit. Love means we act like God acts.

How can you tell when two people are in love? A wise woman used to say that you just have to look in their eyes. Since the eyes were the windows to the soul, you could see the soul glowing in joy and happiness. It is more than a passing interest, physical attraction or a social friendship. Love changes people, making them happier, more content and full of hope.

How can you tell when someone loves God? A wise man named Jesus used to say that you just have to see what they do. When people love God, they also love others. They show respect, kindness, generosity and compassion. It is a love that seeks the good of all, friend and foe alike. We think and act as God does, giving of ourselves for the sake of others. You will know if that love is genuine because it will change hearts, making others happier, more content and full of faith, hope and love.

“The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ joy is constantly born anew.”

~Pope Francis

Evangelization Focus

“Evangelization must be the first focus of our Church. Then, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, which result from living and sharing the Gospel, will transform the culture around us. We have the mission ‘to repair the world,’ what the Jews call Tikkun olam.”

~Cardinal Sean O'Malley
