HIS WORD TODAY

By Rev. William J. Reilly

“Then, Jesus approached and said to them, ‘All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the ages.’”

Once again, we ascend a mountain, the place where God so often revealed Himself. Jesus approached the eleven, and He approaches me, as well. He gave them a commission, and He speaks that same message to me as I read a too-familiar text. Because it is so well known, we might quickly read and move on. But, wait a minute.

The apostles were sent to make disciples, missionary disciples in the words of Pope Francis. This is accomplished through the sacraments, with baptism leading the way. A teaching accompanies the mission – to love God above all things and neighbor as ourselves, not just to follow what I think is acceptable and not uncomfortable.

The final element of the commissioning experience is the assurance of the ongoing and abiding presence of the Lord to direct and sustain us. When the Spirit of Pentecost transformed them, the mission began, and continues through me, today. All of us are called and sent as missionary disciples.

PRAYER FOR THE UNBORN

Heavenly Father, You created us in Your own image, and You desire that not even the least among us should perish. In Your love for us, You entrusted Your only Son to the Holy Virgin Mary. Now in Your love, protect against the wickedness of the devil those little ones to whom You have given the gift of life. I ask that You help reach those considering abortion, and by Your Grace, change their hearts and protect the unborn.

FIESTA DE LA SANTISIMA TRINIDAD

Anuncia ahora el Maestro uno de los deberes de su comunidad: bautizar en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo; el Bautismo se convierte en el comienzo de la expansión del cristianismo; relejendo los Hechos de los Apóstoles nos daríamos cuenta cómo aquellos que escuchaban la Buena Noticia creían y se bautizaban; el significativo baño en agua, cargado con la fuerza del Sacramento, crea en los cristianos una nueva forma de vida y les hace parte de una nueva familia que es la Iglesia.

Somos hijos de Dios, porque así lo ha designado el Padre; ha querido ponernos su anillo y hacer una fiesta en nuestro honor; por eso nos atrevemos a llamarlo Abba, Padre; porque así nos lo ha revelado Jesús. Hemos sido salvados en el Hijo: su muerte y resurrección abre para nosotros la vida eterna que se nos había prometido junto a Dios desde la creación del mundo. Su redención a través del madero nos hace mirar agradecidos al Mesías.

Santificados y guiados por la fuerza del Espíritu, nos sentimos en todo momento acompañados por la Fuerza que permanece viva y operante en medio de nosotros; es en el Espíritu y por su gracia, por lo que podemos conocer a Dios.

La Trinidad nos acompaña aquí y ahora; ser conscientes de su presencia es sentir que somos amados por el Dios uno y trino que se nos ha manifestado gratuitamente.
