

A Note from Father Greg...

Next weekend will be my last with you for the time being, as you prepare to welcome your new pastor, Father Sojan, who arrives on Monday, June 16. The next day I'm off to Alaska to go exploring for two weeks with several friends. When I get back, I'll be at St. Benedict in Crystal River for several weeks and St. Thomas in Homosassa after that. I will still see you from time to time as Father Sojan calls on me for assistance, and we may well see each other around Dunnellon and elsewhere as Citrus Springs is now my permanent home.

Thanks for your kind words of support during what has been a rather trying time of transition for the parish, and a time of adjustment for me personally after the death of my father. I am always delighted to hear that many of you have enjoyed reading my first book, Making God Laugh. The one described here has just gone to the publisher and will be available in a few months.

I would like to think that I am leaving St. Elizabeth a little more unified and peaceful than when I arrived five months ago. In any case, please keep me, your new pastor, our bishop, and all the priests of our Diocese in your prayers as we continue to help one another on the way to our true and eternal home. God bless you!

COMING THIS FALL A NEW BOOK BY Father Greg Andrews

Have you ever wondered what life is all about? Life & Death is a collection of down-to-earth reflections on life as we know it, and as we can choose to make it. Having told the story of his life and life's work in Making God Laugh (2011), the author presents here lessons he has learned on life's journey, gently encouraging the reader to try them on for size.

Written from a Christian perspective, Life & Death will inspire persons of all denominations in all walks of life. For some, this uplifting work will be a spiritual primer; for others, a welcome reminder of the presence of grace at work in the world, and of the lofty calling that is ours as citizens of the earth. Much of the mystery and majesty of human life, as well as its angst, is succinctly captured in these pages.

Life & Death details in a delightful way what a life worth living looks like. Every reader will be able to discover here the very best life has to offer, from womb to tomb, and beyond.

Volunteer's Needed

Daystar Life Center needs volunteers. It's been proven that people who volunteer live longer and have a healthier life than those who don't. Daystar has a host of different positions to choose from. If you have one day a week or one day a month to volunteer, Daystar can use your help. Stop by for a visit and find out more about the food pantry started by Fr. James Hoge more than 31 years ago. We're housed in the old Catholic School building located at 6751 W. Gulf to Lake Hwy., Crystal River, just across from the Publix shopping center. Hours are from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information, please call 795-8668.
