"I desire Mercy, not Sacrifice" Hosea 6:6

The message of Divine Mercy is meant for all souls as a message of Hope, Love and Peace.

Please join Fr. Michael on Divine Mercy Sunday (April 12, 2015) at 2 pm for a Holy Hour which will include the Stations of the Cross, Eucharistic Adoration, the recitation of the chaplet of Divine Mercy to be held at Blessed Sacrament Church.

A Novena of Divine Mercy that Jesus asked to be prayed for the world will begin on Good Friday and culminate on Divine Mercy Sunday.

Fr. Michael will speak more about this Novena and the Holy Hour in the coming weekend Masses. Booklets for the Novena are available at the back of the churches.

Please feel free to contact Fr. Michael if you have any questions at 781-233-2497.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Next week's Easter collection is for our priests. The Clergy Health and Retirement Trust helps care for the health and well-being of our 628 priests, ensuring an appropriate level of care and quality of life for the men who have dedicated their lives in service to our Archdiocese of Boston. Our priests have been there for us. Now, it our turn to care for them in their time of need. Thank you in advance for your prayers and support to ensure the continuing care for all our priests.

Book Review Meeting

Join Fr. Michael for a review of the book "The Dolorous Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ" by German mystic Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich.

This book is a vivid account of Jesus' Passion, Death and Resurrection as seen through visions by Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich.

A good English translation is available (ISBN number: 0895552108). The work is also available online at: http://www.jesus-passion.com/DOLOROUS_PASSION_OF_OUR_LORD_JESUS_CHRIST.htm

The next meeting will be at Saint Margaret's Hall from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. March 31st.

RICE BOWLS –

Hungering for a Better Life

Join our parish and other parishes across the United States-in a life changing Lenten Journey with Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls. Pick up your family's Rice Bowl at the entrances of the church and be a part of this Lenten experience. Remember, Lenten sacrifices change lives. Rice Bowls should be returned between Palm Sunday and Easter.

Meditations on the Triduum
By Victor Hoagland, C.P.

The Paschal Triduum, marking the days of Jesus' passion and resurrection, is the most important time of the church year. It begins with the evening Mass on Holy Thursday, reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil, and closes on Easter Sunday evening. Prepared by the days of Lent, Christians celebrate on these holiest of days the saving work God has accomplished in Christ. From the events remembered these days, so sorrowful and so joyful, the church learns the deepest lessons. In rites and words the mysteries of Jesus' final hours are with us again, his passion, his cruel suffering, his rising from the dead. And we discover the answer to the age-old questions: Does God love us? Is God merciful? Does God care for us? We have only to look and learn from Jesus Christ.

These are days for fixing our eyes on the holy mystery of his cross and filling our ears with the words of the Gospel. Nowhere else does God's love appear so vividly. In the love Christ showed for a sinful world we find the beginning of our church, the source of our Sacraments, the key to understanding the human story, and our hope for eternal life.

Holy Thursday: The Easter Triduum begins with Mass on Holy Thursday evening when Jesus sacramentally anticipated the gift he would make of himself on the cross. His command to serve others is dramatically recalled this night in the ceremony of the washing of the feet, which he performed in the Upper Room for his disciples. Like the Paschal lamb, killed and eaten by the people, according to the Old Testament account read from Exodus this evening, he is a sign of God's salvation.

Good Friday: The Good Friday rites center around the reading of the Passion of Jesus. With simple dignity that story is retold, followed by prayers for the entire world, for this powerful mystery brings blessings to the world. According to ancient tradition, an image or relic of the cross is venerated this day, and the sacrament of Christ's love for his church is received. It is a day of fasting and quiet mourning.

The Easter Vigil: The Easter Vigil is the high point of the Easter Triduum celebrating the passion and the resurrection of Jesus. With a rich display of symbols, rites and readings, the church in worship expresses its faith in the mystery that brings it into being.

Light conquers darkness: The vigil opens with a service of light. Like the Jewish Passover, our Easter celebration coincides with the beginning of spring, when the sun offers new warmth and earth is ready to flower again. Our words "lent" (from Middle-English word for spring, "lengthening days") and "Easter" (possibly Germanic or Anglo Saxon in origin, signifying "the east", "the rising sun") point to the long tradition of seeing this holy mystery through signs of the natural world. The lighting of the fire and the Easter candle go back to rites that long preceded Christianity. The candle, carried with loving reverence and lyrically praised in word and song, is a sign of Christ, "the light of the world," and celebrate the victory of light over darkness the humanity has ever longed for.

God's love endures forever: A series of readings recalls the great interventions of God in history, from creation to the redemption of Israel from Egypt, and ends with the story of Jesus' resurrection. The great "alleluia" proclaims with quiet joy the triumph of God's Son. Those preparing for Baptism then receive the sacraments of initiation. The blessed water sprinkled over others signifies the blessing of new life. "Rejoice!" This night says as it brings before us the deepest symbols of our hopes and fears. The darkness, sign of evil and death, has been overcome by light. A lamp, a candle has been lit, a fire is enkindled in our hearts; a nourishing water flows through our lives, a baptism destroys what is unclean and brings to life again. "Rejoice!" this night says to all creation. The Word who made all things, as a new Adam, freshly proclaims God's promise of life, All creation celebrates God's love.

Holy Week 2015

As we prepare to celebrate the most sacred week of the year you are invited to consider these ways of participating in the liturgical celebrations.

On Palm Sunday we will have a special Family Day Celebration of Palms. What a wonderful way to begin this week as a family. At the 11:00 Mass the palm will be blessed outside the church with a procession into the church. After the liturgy there will be a collation downstairs at which time there will be opportunities and instructions for the children to weave their piece of palm into a cross.

On Holy Thursday there will be an opportunity, not required, in the true sense for all to have their feet washed and an opportunity for everyone to wash another person's feet.

On Good Friday one will have the opportunity to venerate the cross. Everyone approaches the cross and venerates it in a manner that is comfortable for the individual, such as touching the cross, genuflecting or bowing before it, kissing it. Going back to former times one may remove their shoes and even their socks and venerate the cross in bare feet, as a sign of real humility before the mystery of God who loves us enough to place himself on the tree of salvation.

Everyone, if they choose to do so may take the place of the person holding the cross during the veneration. This gives others the opportunity to hold the wood of the cross.

The Light is ON for You!

Every Wednesday evening during Lent, you have the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. One of our Priests is available for you from 6:30 p.m. 7:30 p.m. If you haven't been to confession in a while, this a wonderful chance to receive this sacrament. If you are someone who already goes to confession regularly, here is your opportunity to miss the last minute rush. April 1st at St. Margaret Church.

Mass Hours Changing

As of Monday, April 6, 2015, the daily Mass time will return to 9:00 a.m.. In other words daily Mass will be celebrated on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at St. Margaret at 9:00 a.m. and Thursday and Friday and Saturday at Blessed Sacrament at 9:00 a.m.

Holy Week Rehearsals

There is some confusion as to whom is expected to be at the Holy Week rehearsals.

The Holy Thursday rehearsal will be on Tuesday, March 31 at 6:30 at Blessed Sacrament everyone is expected to be there such as altar servers, feet washers and oil bearers with the exception of the Lectors and Eucharistic ministers.

Good Friday rehearsal at 4:00 p.m. on Good Friday at Blessed Sacrament only the servers are expected to be there.

The Easter Vigil rehearsal will be held on Wednesday, April 1st at 7:00 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament everyone involved in the service, with the exception of the Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers, is expected to be there.

On Wednesday, April 1st. evening at 8:00 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament, Easter Vigil Lectors are expected to gather for rehearsals.

If one cannot be there he/she is to contact Fr. Tim 781-233-2497.

From the Pastor:

In reflecting on these readings one of the things that stood out to me was the statement in the first reading from the prophet Jeremiah; "I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts." As I sat with that, I wondered, have we allowed that to happen? The reading goes on to say; "No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the Lord." How is that? Is that because the law is upon our hearts and others will come to know God through us? Have we kept Jesus at a distance, not letting him write the law upon our hearts? Is that because we have yet to come to terms with what his life death and resurrection really means to me?

It is one thing to say that Jesus died for humankind. That statement is generic and safe. It is another thing to say that Jesus died for me. That statement takes it to a whole other level.

How would you feel toward a person who gave you one of his/her kidneys so that you might live? There would be a bond there that would never be undone. Look to the crucifix and the person, God/man, on that cross gave his life for me, for you as individuals. Contemplate that.

During these last two weeks of Lent the readings really bring out the humanity of Jesus. In today's gospel he says that he is "troubled now." Yet he realizes what the Father asks and he will do it. Yet in the garden when is perspiring drops of blood he asks the Father to take it from him. Yet he says to the Father; "your will be done." While Jesus is on the cross, the agony is so great that he loses sight of the Father and cries out to him accusing him of abandoning him. These passages give us some idea of the emotional and physical pain that he went through, for me.

Take time these two weeks to pray the Passion of Christ, his pain, his humiliation, his suffering, all for me, that I might have life.

Can we make the time to be with Christ in his passion that might come to a deeper appreciation of the depth of his love for us; that is his gift of life to us might penetrate any barrier that we have erected; that the desire to please him and do as he asks becomes prime. I wonder then if his law would not be on our hearts, that he would be our God and we his people. Would the world then not be a little closer to what he created for us and intended for us to have.

Fr. Tim

Meet Fr. Joe— Answering the call with compassion

For Gary and Susan Pickering, Fr. Joe Mazzone is more than a pastor—he is family.

Like so many priests in our Archdiocese, Fr. Joe has been a source of strength and support, helping others find Christ's presence in times of joy and sorrow. When Gary and Susan's daughter Marcy passed away unexpectedly during surgery, Fr. Joe was the first person they called. Marcy had been a close friend of Fr. Joe's, and her faith life had blossomed with his help through challenging times in her life. Fr. Joe was there for the Pickerings as they said goodbye to their beloved Marcy then, and he remains by their side today. Together, they continue to grow in faith and friendship, confident that they will be reunited with Marcy again, and grateful for the hope they receive through each other in Christ Jesus.

Our priests are there for us and our families without question or hesitation. Please consider showing your gratitude by supporting your parish collection this Easter.

Thank you for helping to ensure a continuum of care and quality of life for all our active and senior priests.

“Support your priests with your love and prayers, that they may always be shepherds after Christ’s heart.”

- Pope Francis
