Looking for Eucharist Ministers for both churches.

Looking for volunteers to lead Morning Prayer at 9:00 a.m. at Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday and Good Friday.

Lent is a time set aside to grow in our faith. Under the umbrella of *G*row *In F*aith *T*ogether here are some of the upcoming events in Lent to put on your calendar.

Meager Meals

On the Friday nights during Lent, from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. the Collaborative Outreach Committee will sponsor Meager Meals at Blessed Sacrament Parish in Saugus. One can arrive at any time during the hour and half. Beginning at 6:00 to 6:45 p.m. each Friday evening there will be kid activities related to Lent. At 6:30 p.m. each evening there will be a 10-15 minute adult presentation. Each Friday night, a different parish group will host the meal. In the spirit of fasting the meal will be simple but nourishing. Each person or family is asked to donate what it would have cost one to stay home and have dinner. The monies collected will go to two Saugus Food Pantries; Grace Ministries Church and United Parish Food Pantry.

Praying the Scriptures

Fr. Tim is offering another program on Praying the Scriptures. This program is open to those who attended the Fall program as well as those who might like to experience praying the Scriptures.

In a book by Fr. James Martin, Jesus, A Pilgrimage, Fr. Martin states: "Twenty five years ago........ I was introduced to a marvelous way of praying popularized by St. Ignatius Loyola, the sixteenth-century founder of the Jesuits. This method of prayer goes by many names: Ignatian contemplation, imaginative prayer, and composition of place. Ignatian contemplation encourages you to place yourself imaginatively in the scene from the Bible. For example if you're praying about Jesus and his disciples caught in a boat during a storm on the Sea of Galilee, you would try to imagine yourself on board with the disciples, and ask yourself several questions as a way of trying to place yourself in the scene

Questions like: Who do you see? What do you hear? What do you smell? What do you feel? What do you taste? If interested in experiencing this you are invited to join Fr. Tim in St. Margaret's Hall from 7:00 p.m. to 8:p.m. on the following Thursday nights; March 19th, March 26th.

Book Review Meeting

Join Fr. Michael for a review of the book "The Dolorous Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ" by German mystic Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich.

This book is a vivid account of Jesus' Passion, Death and Resurrection as seen through visions by Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich.

A good English translation is available (ISBN number: 0895552108). The work is also available online at: http://www.jesus-passion.com/DOLOROUS PASSION OF OUR LORD_JESUS_CHRIST.htm

Most meetings are at Saint Margaret's Hall from 7pm to 8:30pm. March 17th and March 31st.

RICE BOWLS -

Hungering for a Better Life

Join our parish and other parishes across the United States-in a life changing Lenten Journey with Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls. Pick up your family's Rice Bowl at the entrances of the church and be a part of this Lenten experience. Remember, Lenten sacrifices change lives. Rice Bowls should be returned between Palm Sunday and Easter.

"Lent is a fitting time for self-denial. We would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty." – Pope Francis

Holy Week 2015

As we prepare to celebrate the most sacred week of the year you are invited to consider these ways of participating in the liturgical celebrations.

On Palm Sunday we will have a special Family Day Celebration of Palms. What a wonderful way to begin this week as a family. At the 11:00 Mass the palm will be blessed outside the church with a procession into the church. After the liturgy there will be a collation downstairs at which time there will be opportunities and instructions for the children to weave their piece of palm into a cross.

On Holy Thursday there will be an opportunity, not required, in the true sense for all to have their feet washed and an opportunity for everyone to wash another person's feet.

On Good Friday one will have the opportunity to venerate the cross. Everyone approaches the cross and venerates it in a manner that is comfortable for the individual, such as touching the cross, genuflecting or bowing before it, kissing it. Going back to former times one may remove their shoes and even their socks and venerate the cross in bare feet, as a sign of real humility before the mystery of God who loves us enough to place himself on the tree of salvation.

Everyone, if they choose to do so may take the place of the person holding the cross during the veneration. This gives others the opportunity to hold the wood of the cross.

The Light is ON for You!

Every Wednesday evening during Lent, you have the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. One of our Priests is available for you from 6:30 p.m. 7:30 p.m. If you haven't been to confession in a while, this a wonderful chance to receive this sacrament. If you are someone who already goes to confession regularly, here is your opportunity to miss the last minute rush. March 18th, March 25th and April 1st at St. Margaret Church.

Easter Flower Envelopes

Easter flower envelopes, in memory of a loved one, can be found at the doors of the church.

Envelopes must be returned by March

27th in order to appear in the Easter Sunday bulletin.

WELCOME Pete Culhane has been chosen to join the collaborative team as the Finance and Operations Manager. Pete brings thirty years of experience working for some of the largest financial service companies in the country including Bank of America. He is a devout Catholic and is committed to the new Disciples in Mission Program of the Archdiocese to promote the further growth and Evangelization of the parishes. He will be responsible for the financial oversight, facility planning, and personnel management. He's excited to join the team of dedicated employees and volunteers within the collaboration. Pete has a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Notre Dame. He and his family, wife Diane, son Nick, daughter Casey and Gus the cat reside, in Walpole, Massachusetts and worship at The Church of the Blessed Sacrament in Walpole. The name Culhane may be familiar to some parishioners. Father William Culhane was the pastor of our Blessed Sacrament from 1949 to 1972. Father Bill was the twin brother of Pete's grandfather.

From the Pastor:

What are we to learn from these readings today? In the first reading from Exodus we have the Lord God expressing his love for his people, reminding them of what he has done for them, and offering them ways of better keeping the covenant. In the gospel passage we have a passage in which humankind has deliberately chosen not to listen to what Jesus has said and to continue to do it in their way. The second reading reminds us that many look upon the wisdom of God as foolish, outdated, and irrelevant in the 21st century. Yet the psalm reminds us that Lord has the words of everlasting love.

The statement that really caught my attention was the last statement in the gospel. "But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it

Where does that leave us? I think the gospel is a testimony of the truth or reality of the humanity of Jesus. He is consumed with zeal for the message of God, for the kingdom of God and is totally frustrated with the fact that the people are not getting it. In the Old Testament readings we have the love of God, we have what he is asking and we have the psalmist praying that God's ways are the ways to the kingdom. On the other hand we have humankind who from the beginning of creation has thought their ways are better. Thus there is the tension and ultimately the choice. What does humankind use for the criteria of making their choices? A friend of mine gave me a picture the other day of a two headed turtle. Each turtle is complete in itself but they are conjoined in the rear. So the heads are faced in opposite directions. To me it symbolizes life. With the tortoise which gets the final say, the stronger, the more outgoing. In society which way do people go, in God's way or in societal ways? Who has the stronger voice? In reality it comes down to what we believe. We all want the same end result, happiness and fulfillment in this life and in the next. God says he has the way. Yet society says it has the way. Like the turtle we find that each has its allurement. The choice is ours.

Yet at the end of life is not the answer for most people God? Why not choose him earlier and enjoy the benefits of being a believer?

Can you choose the correct endings?

- 1. Moses spoke to the people about:
 - (a) a prophet whom God would raise up
 - (b) building a temple (c) warfare?
- 2. Saint Paul wanted people to be:
 - (a) more aggressive (b) free of all worries
 - (c) busy with their business concerns?
- 3. Jesus entered the synagogue on the:
- (a) feast of the Passover (b) last day of the week (c) Sabbath?
- 4. The unclean spirit made the man:
 - (a) shriek (b) strangely docile (c) foretell the future?
- 5. Jesus made the unclean spirit:
 - (a) undergo punishment (b) become visible
 - (c) leave the man?

ANSWERS

The correct answers are: 1(a); 2(b); 3(c); 4(a); 5(c)
