A Message from the Pastor

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity - May 31, 2015

Baptismal Formula

Paul Turner

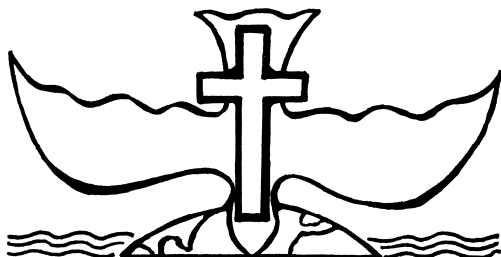

The minister who baptizes someone calls the person by name and says these words: "N., I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." That sentence is called the "baptismal formula." It is to be said while performing an action: either immersing the person in water three times or pouring water over the person three times - once at each mention of a person of the Trinity.

The formula can be traced to the conclusion of the Gospel of Matthew, where Jesus commands the disciples to go out to all the world, baptizing in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (28:19). Although there is some evidence in Acts of the Apostles for baptism in the name of Jesus, the Catholic Church has long endorsed the Trinitarian formula.

In recent years, some have proposed an alternative formula, baptizing in the name of the Creator, the Redeemer, and the Sanctifier, or even the Creator, the Liberator, and the Sustainer. The Catholic Church does not recognize the validity of such baptisms because they veer too far from the traditional formula. The proposed formulas seem to promote gender-neutral names for the Trinity, but they express functions of the divine persons, not their names. Because the traditional formula for baptism appears in the Gospels, the Catholic Church strongly holds that it must be maintained.

Those who were baptized with an alternative formula should present themselves to the church for baptism with the traditional formula. Ordinarily, baptism is performed by a priest or a deacon. In emergencies, anyone may baptize, even a nonbeliever, as long as he or she uses the formula, performs the action, and has the right intention.

NEW PARISH YOUTH MINISTER

I'm happy to announce that our parish has hired a new full-time Youth Minister!

Please join me in welcoming Katie Dugan, who will start on June 1st. Katie comes to us as she completes a two-year term of ministry with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students, where she served with a team at Fairleigh Dickinson University. We're pleased to have her join our parish staff. Your first chance to meet her will be at the youth ministry booth at our carnival, June 2-6, from 6 to 10 p.m. Stop by to say hello (and get face-painting and temporary tattoos to support youth ministry!)

I'm also grateful for the fine work done by our Search Committee. We reviewed a large number of applicant resumes and conducted a series of candidate interviews over the past few months. Joining me on the committee were Irene Nayden, Andrew Monticello, Bill Konvit, Veronica Lenzi, Maureen Morrissey, Nicole Cinelli and Luke Lombardi.

Father Charlie

WE ARE LIVING STONES

All parishioners should have received a special mailing this week about the "We Are Living Stones" campaign to benefit the Newark Archdiocese and the parish of Guardian Angel. (If you did not receive one, please contact the rectory.) We are inviting everyone's participation in this special undertaking to help meet important long-term needs in the archdiocese and to fund hoped-for improvement projects here in our parish. HALF of all moneys now pledged will be rebated to us for our parish special needs! This four-year campaign has great potential! Next weekend and during the month of June at weekend Mass you will be hearing more about what this will mean for us. In addition, we will be displaying a rendering of the landscape architect's proposal for the church plaza area., one of our hoped-for projects.

We like to think of it as not just a fund-raiser but a FUN-raiser! This depends on the support of the community to participate, and the support of parishioners to work.

We will again be looking for volunteers to help run the games. In the Food Garden you will be able to enjoy a dish of pasta, heroes (sausage & peppers or meatball), Italian ices, zeppoles and many other carnival treats! We will need volunteers to help take orders, serve the food and help with set up and clean up. You will get a great deal of satisfaction (and a free limited-edition t-shirt!) for your volunteering efforts. Please sign up at the carnival table in the vestibule after Mass today or contact Irene Nayden (201-327-0352) or inayden@guardianangelchurch.org. Please let us know if you can help out on any of the nights and if you have a preference for where you work, 1) Games, 2) Food, 3) Set up or clean up.

Thank you for your continued support of Guardian Angel!!

WHAT ARE WE TO DO?

Be careful not to miss the action words, the verbs, in these readings today. Such a feast might imply we ought to stand still or kneel down. But Paul reminds us that we are led by the Spirit. In Matthew's Gospel we are sent. "Go!" Jesus commands us. "Make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19).

Just remember--we have nothing to fear. The Lord has chosen us to be his own. Jesus has promised to be with us always, until the end of the world! He promised to do this by sending the Holy Spirit. He taught us to call God our Father. While the Trinity is certainly a mystery of our faith, it is clear that Jesus did not intend for it to be a secret.

For many years we have offered a program that we like to call Children's Church. This is a children's Liturgy of the Word that is offered during 11:30 Mass. Children are invited to participate in a child friendly environment in the vestibule of the church where the Word is proclaimed in language that is easily understood by young children. This is completely run by volunteers and during the past year many of our volunteers have moved on to other ministries and we unfortunately cut back on the number of times that we were able to offer this great program. Please consider joining a team. You would only be asked to participate 3 or 4 times during the year with a team of 2 or 3 people.

You may want to consider joining a Children's Church team next year.

Any adult can join!!!

- Adults with babies who want early practice
- Adults with children who can't get enough
- Adults with teenagers who want to relive the sweet days
- Adults with empty nests who want to fill the void
- Adults with grandkids who want to stay on top of their game
- Unofficial adults.... Confirmed high school or college students

You can help our K - 3rd Graders hear and understand God's Word during Mass. It is a simple but rewarding ministry... no theological degree required!! You get the readings weeks in advance so you may prepare a lesson around them. No crayons, no glue, it's a very neat and clean event!

First Eucharist banners have been removed from the church and brought to the Religious Education office for you to pick up.

This year Summer Angel Wings, A Religious Ed option for children in grades 1 through 5, will meet on the following dates: June 29, 30, July 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, 9 & 10. The hours are 9:00 AM until 12:30 PM. Class lists and volunteer assignments are ready and may be picked up in the Religious Ed office during regular office hours of Monday to Thursday from 11:00 until 3:00. Remember the Religious Ed office is closed on Fridays.

In the coming weeks we will begin to contact catechists for our Tuesday evening program. Two years ago we moved classes to church buildings. The new format was successful thanks to volunteer catechists. Several of our catechists in this program are not parents of students, but are happy to share their faith with our students. It is a great way to connect with the young people of our parish. If you think you would like to be a "guest speaker" for one Tuesday evening during the school year for either 6th, 7th or 8th grade, please let us know. We will be happy to go over the material with you and help you prepare in any way.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Just a reminder: adults who participate in any activity involving children in the parish must attend the Protecting God's Children workshop. Guardian Angel will offer two opportunities to attend. The workshop was presented this past week but if you missed it we will offer it again on Thursday June 11th at 7:00 PM. Please go to the website www.virtus.org to sign up.

Finally, the deadline for 2015/2016 registration for Religious Education was May 5. If you have not registered yet please contact the Religious Education office at 201-327-0352 or inayden@guardianangelchurch.org or jborzilleri@guardianangelchurch.org as soon as possible.

STEWARSHIP BULLETIN
REFLECTIONS

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." -

Romans 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time, talent and treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

Youth Ministry Sunday
Sunday, June 14 at the 11:30 Mass

On this occasion we will offer any graduating high school senior a blessing and a gift. If you are a high school senior, who plans to attend, please notify our Youth Ministry Office at schey@guardianangelchurch.org by June 7th.
