PARISH INFORMATION

NEW PARISHONERS

Welcome to our Community! We invite you to register at the Church Office during office hours, pickup a Welcome Packet in the Gathering Area or online at: www.parishesonline.com/good-shepherd-HM. Though a rather simple act, registration is a sign of one's commitment and responsibility to the parish and allows the parish to know how many families live in the parish. It also provides an official record of your membership and is essential for participation in parish programs and sacraments.

Emergencies: In cases of emergency, please contact the Parish Office during regular business hours. After hours, please call Deacon Pat at (910) 818-0801.

Sick and Homebound/Hospitalized: Please notify the Parish Office when someone is ill and unable to attend Mass for any significant length of time and would like to receive Holy Communion.

Bulletin Deadline: Requests are due to Cynthia Reilly by 12 noon on the Monday prior to the weekend the announcement is to be published. Use required request form available in the Gathering Area or e-mail your request to: Cynthia.reilly@rocketmail.com

Parish Fasting

For the Life and Healing of the Parish, Father Gaul has asked us to start a Fast each Wednesday of the week. Please remember that you can do a full fast, a partial fast or other type of self-denial.

Parish Healing Would you like to help build the parish and allow us to heal? Help the parish grow by inviting someone you know who has fallen away from the church to come to Mass with you one weekend. Or invite someone new who is not Catholic. God is always calling new people to him and asking us to live out our baptismal call. What better time since we hear so much negative publicity about God and church? We might not be able to bring God and prayer back into school and our government, but we can bring people into the church.

Thank you to all who participated in the EXO Training last Sunday. It was wonderful to see such a great response.

We are hoping to see the same results for our Sacristan Training that will be held on Sunday, June 29 at 9:45 am. What are the responsibilities for a Sacristan? Prepare the altar for Mass, set-up for baptisms, clean up after Mass. Need more info? Contact Sheila Franklin at 260-672-3687.

Do you Homeschool your children? If so, come join the Homeschool group at Good Shepherd every other Friday over the summer. For more information, contact Janice Scott at 425-1590.

Vocations Chalice

This weekend The Herrera Family will take the Vocations Chalice home. They will place the Chalice on their table and pray the Vocations Prayer with the Chalice every day and return it next weekend.

Please help pray the Vocations Prayer that is prayed with the Chalice below.

The Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Bless your Church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Help those who have embraced the consecrated life to live up to their promises. Form us all in the likeness of your Son so that in Him, with Him and through Him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Would your family like a chance to take the Vocations Chalice home for a week? A sign-up sheet is available on the table in the Gathering Area.

RCIA A CALL FOR SPONSORS

The RCIA process (The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) will start in late August. The process of bringing adults into the Catholic Church requires members of our parish community to be part of their faith journey by serving as Sponsors. Part of our Baptismal call is to "serve one another with love" and all who believe in Jesus are charged to share their faith with others. To be a sponsor, you do not have to be a "theologian" or an expert on Catholicism. You need only to share your time and faith to help build up the Body of Christ. Search your heart and prayerfully consider being a Sponsor. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide your decision. Discern your gifts and maybe one of them is to walk with someone wanting this Catholic faith that we enjoy.

Information session: Sunday, June 29th at 9:45am in Room 4 of the Church. If you cannot attend the session and are interested, contact Camille Grupy at 424-6802 or by e-mail: alcam116@embargmail.com. Attending does not mean commitment or obligation.

Library News Summer is in full swing! You may be looking for some beach or back porch reading. Our Library has several fiction titles that you may find interesting, but quick reading.

A few examples are:

Our Lady of the Lost and Found—a novel of Mary, Faith and Friendship by Diane Schoemperlan.

My Sister's Keeper by Jodi Picoult

The Shack by William Paul Young.

Of course we also have a small selection for children.

Please stop in and take a look. We are the first door on the left down the administrative hallway.

WHY WE NEED A HEALTH CARE CONSCIENCE RIGHTS ACT

The right of religious liberty, the First Freedom guaranteed by our Constitution, includes a right to provide and receive health care without being required to violate our most fundamental beliefs. Especially since 1973, when abortion became legal nationwide, federal lawmakers have worked in a bipartisan way to ensure that Americans can fully participate in our health care system without being forced to take part in abortion or other procedures that violate their conscience.

The need to improve current laws is clear, because the right of conscience is still under attack:

- Under the new health care reform law, the federal government is demanding that almost all health plans fully cover female sterilization and a wide range of drugs and devices to prevent pregnancy, including those that can cause an early abortion. Even individuals and organizations with a religious objection to abortion, sterilization or other procedures are forced to take part.
- A Catholic agency that for years had provided excellent service lost its federal grant to serve the victims of human trafficking, because it could not, in conscience, comply with a new requirement to facilitate abortions and other morally objectionable procedures for its clients.
- Dedicated health care professionals, especially nurses, still face pressure to assist in abortions under threat of losing their jobs or their eligibility for training programs.
- In some states, government officials are seeking to force even Catholic hospitals to allow abortions or provide abortion coverage in order to continue or expand their ministry.

This is why members of Congress of both parties sponsored the Health Care Conscience Rights Act (H.R. 940, S. 1204). The Act would improve federal law in three ways:

1. Correcting loopholes and other deficiencies in the major federal law preventing governmental discrimination against health care providers that do not help provide or pay for abortions.
2. Inserting a conscience clause into the health care reform law, so its mandates for particular “benefits” in private health plans will not be used to force insurers, employers and individuals to violate their consciences or give up their health insurance.
3. Adding a “private right of action” to existing federal conscience laws, so those whose consciences are being violated can go to court to defend their rights. (Current enforcement is chiefly at the discretion of the Department of Health and Human Services, which is itself sponsoring some attacks on conscience rights.)

All House and Senate members should be urged to support and co-sponsor the Health Care Conscience Rights Act, so our First Freedom can regain its proper place as a fundamental right protected in our health care system. For more details, see: www.usccb.org/conscience.

What can you do to ensure the protection of religious freedom at home and abroad? Text the word “Freedom” to 377377 for updates from the bishops on current threats to religious liberty. Visit www.usccb.org/freedom for more information on how you can take action to protect religious liberty!

The Fortnight for Freedom:

Freedom to Serve will take place from June 21 to July 4, 2014, a time when our liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power—St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome. The theme of this year's Fortnight focuses on the freedom to serve the poor and vulnerable in accord with human dignity and the Church's teaching.

Bishop Burbidge invites the Faithful to participate in Fortnight for Freedom

All are invited to join with Bishop Burbidge in the celebration of Mass during the Fortnight for Freedom on Thursday, June 26 at 6:00 pm at St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church in Cary. A reception/picnic sponsored by the Knights of Columbus will follow the service. The Mass is an opportunity to participate in the 14-day Diocesan observance of the Fortnight for Freedom focusing on prayer, education and peaceful public action to protect our right to religious liberty. In addition, please bring baby formula and diapers as a donation to Catholic Charities in honor of the theme of this year's Fortnight which includes a dimension of service. More information and educational resources on the Fortnight for Freedom can be found at www.dioceseofraleigh.org.
